PRICE THREE CENTS

20,000,000 WOMEN DENIED HUSBANDS

This Is Tragic Situation As Found in Europe—Great Part Of Female Population Sentenced To Sex Starvation

(BY MILTON BRONNER—LONDON — (Special) — Nearly 20,000,000 girls and women in Europe today are doomed to die old maids.

M. BRONNER

They are sentenced to sex-starvation; no husbands, no homes, no motherhood.

It is a situation without precedent in history. It is the biggest human interest story in the world.

Yet governments close their eyes to it, statesmen and politicians ignore it, reporters and authors avoid it.
It is too vast in all its aspects—political, economic and moral—for them to grapple with.

There are 20,000,000 more females than males in Europe today because of the vagaries of the birthrate, the survival of more girl infants than boy babies, the destruction of men by war and the heavier toll of males taken by famine and pestilence.

FUNDAMENTALS INVOLVED

These millions of so-called superfluous women are creating questions involving every thing of fundamental importance; the sanctity and preservation of the home, the social and political equality of women, work and wages, and the next generation's heritage of good or evil.

In the British Isles the superfluous women number 2,000,000. In Russia, 8,000,000.

Their 10,000,000 sisters are scattered throughout the other countries.

Not only are there no legitimate mates for these 20,000,000 superfluous women but eligible young men are deterred from marrying by lack of work, cuts in wages, scarcity of houses, higher cost of necessities and threats of new wars.

The result is that a spirit of afterthought wariness pervades Europe. Men and women alike spend more of their wages, they are keener in publishing pleasure, they are more defiant of the conventions and less in their morals.

The male is supreme. At dances he has six girls to pick from, where formerly he had to compete for a partner. Everywhere you see many girls dancing together; hostesses giving balls have a hard time getting as many men as women.

A new type has developed: the paid male escort. In Paris, in Nice, even in Monte Carlo you'll see him dancing with well-to-do women of middle age while charming girls are waitflowers.

In every class of society girls will put up with almost any sort of a man for the sake of having him to go out with.

To make themselves companionable girls smoke, drink, get and risk other indiscretions.

NEGRO TAKEN HERE AS KIDNAPER

Intercepted on Interurban Car
With Two Children

REVENGE SEEN AS MOTIVE

Toledo Boy and Girl Say They Were Held Captive

Local police, co-operating with Detective W. M. Matheny of the Toledo police department, frustrated an attempted kidnaping Wednesday noon by arresting Thomas Samuel, 45, colored, alias Thomas Suber of Toledo, while passing thru Lima on an Ohio Electric Interurban car.

With Samuel were two small children, Blanch Suber, 14, and his sister, Robinsona Suber, 10. Both are colored children of Mrs. Susie Hill, 535 Mill-st. Toledo, whom police claim he was attempting to kidnap.

According to Matheny, the Toledo police received a call from Mrs. Hill Monday night, stating that Samuel was threatening her life with a gun.
When police arrived, Samuel left by a rear door and gave the officers a long chase across the commons, where he escaped, they reported.

He was apprehended Tuesday and placed under arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace. The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Hill. He was released under a bond of $50 to appear for trial Wednesday.

HIDDEN IN BOX CAR

Monday night, Samuel had taken the two children to an empty box car, used by track workmen along the New York Central Railroad tracks and hid them, not allowing them to leave the car. It was charged.

Detective Matheny was on his way to Lima Wednesday morning to identify a fur neck piece stolen from the LaSalle & Koch store in Toledo.
He was found in the home of Mrs.
Bessie Mullen, 602 N. Main-st., when he recognized Samuel on the car with two children.

A conversation followed between the detective and Samuel, during which Samuel told him he was on his way to Lima and that the two children were not in his charge.

The conductor on the car informed Matheny that Samuel presented three tickets for Ft. Wayne.

Further conversation caused Samuel to become suspicious and he talked to the rear of the car. Matheny followed him intending jumping from the car. He handcuffed him.

A hurry call was sent to the Lima police to meet the car as it entered Lima. Officers Cook and Kipker met the car at the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing and took charge of Samuel and the two children.

KIDNAPING CHARGED

When registered at police headquarters, Samuel was charged with being a fugitive from justice, without bond. He will be taken to Toledo sometime Wednesday, where he will be placed against him, police said.

When the Suber boy was questioned at police headquarters Wednesday, he told how he and his sister had been kept prisoners in the box car since Monday night and declared that when he arrived in Ft.
Wayne, he was going to write to his mother to come and rescue him, but was afraid to make an outcry on the car.

Both children declared they were anxious to get back to their mother in Toledo. Neither one knew who their father is and said they knew Samuel for a long time, but that he is not their father.

The only reason police could advance for Samuel kidnaping the children was for revenge against their mother, because she had him arrested, they said.

MINERS TO CELEBRATE

niversary of the establishment of the eight-hour day in mines and the 33rd of the organization of the United Mine Workers of America will be celebrated Monday in Dennison and Uhrichville. A parade of miners and railroad shopmen and speeches by union leaders will be features of the celebration.

3 SHOT IN HOLDUP BATTLE Daugherty Is Quizzed

QUESTIONED IN KEENAN DEATH

Attorney General's Son Answers
Call in Murder Probe

PROMISES TO TELL ALL

Story Expected to Aid in Roundup of 'Blackmailers'

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Draper M. Daugherty, son of the attorney general of the United States, appeared at District Attorney Pecora's office today and was questioned at length concerning any information he might have about blackmail plots in which Dorothy Keenan, slain model, figured as decoy.

NEW YORK — (United Press) — Draper Daugherty son of the attorney general, has agreed to come to Assistant District Attorney Fred Pecora's office this afternoon and tell what he knows about Dorothy Keenan, Pecora told the United Press.

The exact hour at which the young man will arrive has not been set but will be probably late this afternoon.

Daugherty, according to a published interview which was brought to Pecora's attention was friendly with the "Broadway Butterfly," who found chloroformed in her apartment March 15. However, there was nothing about the friendly which Daugherty desired to conceal. A blackmailier telephoned Daugherty and threatened to reveal his acquaintance with the model, the interviewer said. Daugherty, having nothing to hide, defied the blackmailier.

ARREST EXPECTED

Pecora believes that if the young man will supply the name of the person who telephoned it may be the connecting link that will lead to arrest of the blackmailing gang which is suspected of having slain Miss Keenan because she refused to join their plot against J. Kearsley Mitchell, Philadelphia millionaire.

With regards to reports that E. T.
Stotesbury, father-in-law of Mitchell, would come here to aid in clearing up the mystery, Pecora said that he had had no word from Stotesbury, but if the latter desired to confer with him he would be glad to receive him at any time.

STORY ACCEPTED

PHILADELPHIA — (United Press) — Mrs. J. Kearsley Mitchell has accepted her millionaire husband's explanation of his relations with Dorothy King, "Broadway Butterfly" according to indications today.

Husband and wife are believed to have spent the night under the same roof — in Mitchell's Rittenhouse Square mansion following a family conference at White Marsh, the country residence of E. T.
Stotesbury, wealthy father-in-law of Mitchell.

Servants said this morning that both the master and mistress were in the house. The place was alive with activity. Flunkies were hurrying about, a janitor was polishing a brass rail at the front steps and fresh flowers in vases were placed in the windows.

The key to the reunion of the Mitchells is their two children, Frances and Jackie. Their love for their father will probably assist greatly in drawing today any breath that may have been opened by revelations of the millionaire's friendship for Miss King, who was chloroformed by blackmailers, when she refused to assist in a plot against Mitchell.

The home-coming of Mrs. Mitchell, who started from Paris to meet her husband as soon as she heard of his trouble is featured by much mystery and maneuvering of detectives. So far as can be ascertained, after many ruses, Mitchell actually boarded the private car and met his wife in the Philadelphia railroad yards. The car was unoccupied from the train and rushed by a switch engine to another station where the principals entered a limousine and drove to White Marsh. Detectives guarded every entrance to the estate.

Later a machine with drawn curtains left the estate and dashed to the Mitchell home in Rittenhouse Square. Police were on watch in front of the house, holding back a crowd. A man and woman said to be Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left the car and ran into the house.

HOME ROBBED

CLEVELAND — Jewelry and fur valued at more than $3,000 and a housemaid who worked but a single day in the home of Harold Schwartz were being hunted by police today.
Disappearance of the girl and the gems was reported to police after Mrs. Schwartz entered the maid's room last night to find the windows leading to the fire-escape open and her new employee gone.

WINNER FIVED

CINCINNATI — John W. Mayer, who refused $2,100 in lieu of a house won on a raffle, was fined $10 and costs in police court on charge of participating in a game of chance.

BOY IS KILLED BY SUGAR PROBE LAUNCHED RIFLE BULLET

William Brunn, 15, St. Marys, Dies in Hospital Here

William Brunn, 15-year-old high school student of St. Marys, died at St. Rita's at 10 p. m. Tuesday from the effects of a rifle wound received during the afternoon when a gun in the hands of Elise Macken-bach, 16, a playmate, was accidently discharged while they were shooting target, two-miles north of St. Marys.

Brunn was walking in advance of Mackebach and four other boys, to set up a target, when the rifle in Mackebach's hands was accidently discharged. Brunn sank to the ground with a bullet in his head.
He was unconscious when his playmates reached him.

His companions, distracted and awed over the sudden tragedy, raised Brunn's unconscious form and started to carry him to town, a distance of two miles. Mackebach's father, who happened to meet the boys on the road, placed the injured lad in his car and rushed him to a doctor's office in St. Marys.

His condition became worse during the evening and shortly after 8 o'clock he was hurried to St. Rita's hospital here, in the hope that an operation might save his life.

He died within two hours, before surgery could be resorted to. The bullet entered the right side of the head and lodged near the left mas-toid.

The body was taken to the Williams & Davis undertaking parlors and prepared for burial. An undertaker from St. Marys arrived Wednesday morning to take the body back to that place for funeral services and burial.

REAL BEER SOLD

Alleged Operations of Youngstown Brewery Revealed

YOUNGSTOWN — (Associated Press) — How the management of the Smith Products Company Brewery recently seized by state agents is alleged to have sold real beer for distribution in many Ohio cities without the stockholders' knowledge, splitting the profits among a few men, was in the record of testimony today in the hearing for a re-ceivership, on application of stockholders.

Joseph Planina, former bookkeeper and shipping clerk, said that real beer was sold for $4 a case. Of this amount, Planina testified, $1.50 was entered on the company's books as the regular price for near beer, $1 was paid for "protection" and $1.50 went to the manager, Edward F. Dickson, who is now under arrest. Planina said receipts were as much as $1,000 a day.

Determined to Place Blame for

CONFERS WITH DAUGHERTY

Aid of Tariff Commission is Also Ordered

(By LAWRENCE MARTIN)

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. — (United Press) — President Harding is determined to go to the bottom of the sugar situation and ascertain definitely who or what is responsible for the manipulation in price of this national necessity.

A complete government investigation not only of the tariff angle as demanded in a letter the president has forwarded to the tariff commission is in prospect, it was learned today.

Attorney General Daugherty will be asked to enlist the aid of the department of justice while Secretary of Commerce Hoover will probe the commercial end, according to present plans.

A conference between Daugherty and the president has been arranged for today and means of ascertaining the truth in the situation which is causing Mr. Harding much alarm will be discussed.

PRELIMINARY STEP

Harding has announced the sending of a letter to the tariff commission, demanding that it attempt to learn how for the high Republican tariff goes toward influencing prices.
The president feels that this tariff is not responsible and he is anxious to clear the name of the administration from accusations which have been made in some quarters.

But this is only a preliminary step in the general government inquiry.
The department has full authority to go into the price situation and do things which the commerce department under Secretary Hoover could not have done. Hoover has no power to summon witnesses or command that information concerning price manipulations be given, Daugherty has.

PRESIDENT AROUSED

Harding is very much aroused.
The reports and counter-reports which have been bandied about were brought to his attention by A. D.
Lasker, chairman of the shipping board, and a personal advisor of the chief executive.

Other members of the vacation party also have pointed out editorials in many newspapers indirectly attacking the administration and directly blaming the high Republican tariff. In seeking vindication is an investigation Mr. Harding realizes the importance of preventing demands from making political propaganda out of the situation, it is said. Mr. Harding, likewise realizes that a mere announcement that the tariff is not responsible for high sugar price will not satisfy the minors.

FIGHTS OUT OF DEATH TRAP

Famous Gangster Outwits Posse of 150 Officers

TULSA, Okla. — (Associated Press) — Al Spencer who took the role of Oklahoma's most daring outlaw upon the death of the notorious Henry Starr, apparently has made good his escape today after out-fighting and outwitting a posse of more than 150 officers and men.

With one lieutenant, Spencer battled his way out of a death trap set by the posse and then vanished.
Both Spencer and the man with whom also believed to be wounded.

The search for Spencer and his companion was being directed today around Tulsa where officers believed they would seek refuge instead of making for their retreat somewhere in the fastness of the Osage hills.

TWO LEFT BEHIND

The bandit leader left behind two of the men who aided him Monday in the robbery of the state bank at Mannford—one dead and the other in the hands of county officers.

The dead bandit is Bud Maxfield, who started his criminal career back in the territorial days of Oklahoma as a cattle rustler.

The hunt for Spencer who has terrorized northern Oklahoma for several years by making sudden descents upon country banks had been given up today by the posse that refused to follow from three counties when it was believed that Spencer had been brought to his last stand.

CHILD DISOWNED BY BILL HART

Actor Denies Paternity of Boston Teacher's Offspring

LOS ANGELES — (Associated Press) — Detailed details from William S. Hart, motion picture actor, and his wife, Winifred Westover Hart, screen actress, of charges that Hart was the father of a child born September 3, 1917, to a Boston school teacher, and that Mrs. Hart planned to incorporate the charge in a divorce complaint, became public today.

"Bill" Hart, defendant, categori-cally denied the paternity of any child other than William S. Hart, Jr., born to his present wife, and declared he never "made any trust of other provisions for the support of any child other than my own son, above mentioned."

Mrs. Hart's denial was issued thru her attorney, who added "the incident would have no bearing on the case, even if we did want to use it."

Records in the district attorney's office reveal a stenographic record of accusations made December 5, 1918, by Elizabeth MacCaulley, in the presence of Hart and Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, to the effect that she had visited the actor in his apartments here two years previously and that a child had been born to her in September, 1917.

According to Asa Keyes, chief deputy district attorney, Hart altogether denied the accusations, brought conference to a close by executing a trust deed for the child, for whose support he agreed to pay $50 a month. Hart's attorneys accompanied the actor to the conference.
Keyes said.

MAN FOUND DEAD

George Clarkson Dies in Yard at
A. C. Shappell Home

George Martin Clarkson, 53, former machinist, was found dead about 8 a. m. Wednesday in the yard at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. C.
Shappell, Lima R. D. 7, just west of the city on the Allentown road.

His body was discovered by Mrs.
Shappell; after he had been absent from the house for some time. He had gone out to do some work about the barn, Mrs. Shappell stated. He was apparently in his usual state of health and ate a hearty breakfast, she said.

He had been ill last week, suffering from an attack of influenza, but had apparently recovered. It is believed he was the victim of a sudden attack of heart trouble. Dr. Frank Smith, coroner, was called.

Clarkson was born in Sandusky and had resided in Allen for many years. In addition to Mrs. Shappell, the daughter at whose home he died, Clarkson is survived by three other daughters, and two sons, Mrs. Roy Silver and Misses Nellie and Mabel Clarkson, residing on S. Main-st., Harry Clarkson, of Lima, and Elmer Clarkson, of Mt. Vernon.

DOG DIES IN HUNT FOR BABY

VAN NUYS, Cal. — (Associated Press) — A dog owned by A. V. Sauton, lost its life yesterday while searching a burning barn for its master's baby, safe in the house at the time.

The dog had been taught to search for the child, when asked "where is baby." Someone asked that question while the flames were destroying the barn and the dog dashed into the burning building.

BERNHARDT HAD COFFIN READY

Funeral Services for Actress to be Held Tomorrow

PARIS — (United Press) — The body of Sarah Bernhardt was placed today in the remodeled rosewood coffin which she had held in readiness for death for 30 years.

The funeral services will begin at 8 a. m. tomorrow, when the procession will accompany the body from the residence to the church of St.
Francis De Sales where the beloved French artist worshipped.

The formal rites of the Catholic church will be read there and then, at 11, it is planned to conduct the funeral cortege to the famous burial ground Pere La Chaise, where hundreds of France's most distinguished heroes lie.

Later the body may be removed to Belle Isle, where a vault will be prepared as a final resting place.

A hundred women, grieved at the death of their beloved actress, rushed at police stationed at the door of her home this morning.
They wanted the last chance to see her before the body was placed in the casket. Police were forced to refuse.

REPORTS CAUSING CITY TROUBLE

False Statements Concerning Finance Are Detrimental

CONDITION DECLARED GOOD

Pay-as-you-go Policy Pointed Out by Officials

That irresponsible correspondents for out of town newspapers have been causing much trouble for the City of Lima in its sale of bonds developed at City Hall, this week. These penny-anteers have been broadcasting that "Lima is bankrupt," with the result that bond buyers are looking askance.

A meeting of the Sinking Fund Trustees held yesterday disclosed the fact that the report that the City of Lima is in much better condition financially than a great number of other Ohio municipalities which have been hard hit by legislative enactments of the past few years. The Sinking Fund Trustees passed for payment $35,245, for maturing bonds coming due April 1st and the report disclosed the investment of the Lima Sinking Fund total $340,232.

FINANCIAL HIGH PREMIUMS

The most sale of sewer bonds amounted to $739,000 brought a premium of $11,147.

This premium is considered by financial interest to be a direct reflection of the successful operation of the Lima Water Department. Three years ago this department had a deficit of $60,000, that deficit has since been completely wiped out and last year twenty-one (21) miles of additional water mains were laid to fast growing districts and entirely financed out of water department earnings. This in addition to meeting all debt payments and interest.

The City of Lima, with a 50% valuation which has not been changed for thirteen (13) years has still a bonding leeway of $1,675,831.00 but there is little probability of this potential financial power being called into play because of the drastic reduction in expenditures.

"FAIR, COLDER"
STILL PERSISTS

The weatherman staged a comeback Wednesday when he put the slide under amiable weather of fishing rods and dropped the mercury to a low point on the thermometer scale. He has been hitting it pretty well lately in his forecasts, and his smashing victory Wednesday put him well up in first division.

But Lima didn't cheer him much on the outcome and most of the "deer public" would have been happier had his predictions failed.

For he said colder weather was coming with snow or rain and plenty of moving at a moment's notice. It snowed during part of the morning.

Seeing how unpopular his decision had been, the guy who does the forecasting tore loose with a prediction of fair weather and colder tonight, but saved himself some unpleasant cussing from the public by admitting that higher temperature will arrive Thursday.

So, if he is right, we may get back to spring ideas again before the week is over.

HAI TUT ANKH-AMEN TROT IS HERE!
NOT NEW, SAYS LIMA DANCE MASTER

DANCING masters "out east" may be able to fool the people into thinking the Tut-Ankh-Amen fox trot is the ant's gabones, so to speak, but according to P. X. Laux, local dancing instructor, it is nothing but a fad and will not live long.

The picture above shows President Arthur Murray of the National Institute of Social Dancing with Helen Horendson, said by critics to be New York's best ballroom dancer, stepping the new craze.

"It isn't even new," Laux said. "Just an old step with the hands held in a position to suggest old Egypt, where King Tut lived a few thousand years ago. His publicity agent seems to be still at work."

RATE SUSPENDED

Action is Taken on Proposed Freight Increase

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Proposed increased rates on grain and grain products which were to have become effective April 1 on the lines of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and Omaha, and the Illinois Central Railroads between points in Iowa and Minnesota and Milwaukee, Chicago and St. Paul, Minn., were today ordered suspended by the interstate commerce commission until July 20, pending investigation.

In ordering the suspension the commission explained that the increased rates, it appeared, would injuriously affect the public interest.

TWO WIVES WIN DECREES IN SUITS FOR DIVORCE

Alimony amounting to $30 a month and possession of all personal property was awarded to Mrs. Leah Kunkleman, who won a divorce decree from Jacob Abner Kunkleman, a switchman, 1214 W. High-st., Judge Eastman's court, Wednesday.

Kunkleman was also ordered by the court to make over his $5,000 life insurance policy to his son Virgil, 12.

The couple was married in 1910 and according to testimony presented in court, they resided in Lima, Van Wert and other places along the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Kunkleman, his spouse testified, stayed out late at night, attending dances and amusements, leaving her to sit alone at home. Sometimes, she said, he remained out all night.

Since the separation, Mrs. Kunkleman and her son have been residing with her parents in W. North-st.

Pearl Murdock, was divorced from LeRoy Murdock, at a hearing held before Judge F. C. Becker, Tuesday. She was married in 1910, she told the court, and was largely dependent on charity of friends for support during her marital existence with the defendant.

HUBBY BALKS AT WORK, WIFE SAYS IN PETITION

Married life meant a cessation of labor for James Clark, but a beginning of hard work for Mrs. Aline Clark, she asserts in a divorce petition filed in court Wednesday.

"When we were married he quit work," she declared, "and left it up to me to support him. I am too delicate and could not do so."

According to the wife, Clark spent his money idling and playing cards. They have been married one year. Clark is gone, the plaintiff says. She asks restoration of her maiden name, Aline Simmons.

Day's Winner In "Flame Of Life" Contest

Much interest is being displayed in the "Flame of Life" contest being held in conjunction with the picture of the same name, appearing at the Lyric theatre. Those desiring to enter the contest must have their answers in the Lima News office by Thursday night at 12 o'clock. One dollar each will be awarded for the four best answers received daily and one free admission to the Lyric theatre for the five next best. Grand prizes will be awarded Saturday at the close of the contest.

Following are the four best answers to the question "What is the Flame of Life," received Wednesday:

"Life is spiritual and immortal. Death is material and destroying, so the 'Flame of Life' is religion, the response of the soul to its creator."

MRS. L. C. BINKLEY, 756 Brice-av.

"As the sun is necessary to our Earth, giving light and warmth, so is Hope the flame of life, necessary to our human existence."

MARJORY WARFIELD, 1106 W. Wayne-st.

"Love is the flame of life. The mind has a thousand eyes. The heart but one. Yet the light of a whole life dies when love is done."

MRS. FRED LOCHHEAD, 417 E. Kirby-st.

"The flame of life is that burning zeal or passion—that something from within that inspires us on toward attainment of our endeavor—the coveted goal."

MRS. BILLY SING, 214 E. Second-st.

Five next best answers are submitted by the following:

Helen Wildoner, 932 Brice-av.

Miss E. Phillips, Waynesfield; Mrs. Elmer E. Burkholder, Bluffton; Mrs. J. C. Flint, 110 1-2 W. Wayne-st.; Charlie Mariatt, 1508 Norval-av.

EAGLES CLUB BURNED

WELLSVILLE, Ohio. — Fire at 2:30 a. m. today destroyed the Eagles club rooms and the Simons Undertaking establishment. Loss is estimated at $70,000. Today was Wellsville's second big fire in three months. The first resulted in $150,000 loss. Cause of today's fire is yet undetermined.

THREE ARE FINED

Three entered pleas of guilty in police court Wednesday to charges of being drunk. They were fined $15 each by Judge Emmett Jackson. They gave their names as J. A. Lehman, arrested at the Hudson lunch; James Daugherty, 952 S. Main-st; and John Sassen, no home.

AUTOIST IS FINED

D. W. Hogan, 979 Brice-av, was fined $2 in police court Wednesday, for parking his car in the middle of the street.

HARDING BEGINS SUGAR PROBE

It is recalled that the sugar situation of 1919 caused Mr. Wilson much trouble and with Mr. Harding's proposed western tour in prospect, he desires to clear up the existing situation with the utmost speed.

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — The department of agriculture, as another step in the government's campaign to force down sugar prices, soon will make public a comparative survey of world sugar stocks and expected production.

This survey, according to government officials, will show the prospective sugar supply during the next year to be more than ample and that no shortage which would justify the recent price increase is in prospect.

Unusual importance is attached to this survey as it was announced similar estimates by the department which forced down sugar prices after a sensational rise to almost 30 cents a pound in 1919.

The department of agriculture, it was announced, will place the Cuban production at a considerably higher figure than recent estimates. It will show that the American beet sugar production is somewhat lower than last year, but that the beet crop in other countries is larger.

Thomas O. Marvin, head of the tariff commission, said that in response to President Harding's request an investigation of the effect of the tariff on sugar prices would be instituted at once. Preliminary data already has been collected by the commission.

It was suggested congress be called into session to prevent gambling in sugar and other necessities of life was made by Representative Cole, Iowa Republican.

"The cost of an extra session of congress," he said, "to provide laws which would protect the public, would be as nothing compared with the $100,000,000 taken from the sugar consumers with each cent increase in price."

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Investigation of the relation of recent sugar price increases to the tariff, as ordered by President Harding, is insufficient to stop speculation and force prices back down to a normal level. Basil M. Manley, director of the People's Legislative Service said today in another telegram to the chief executive at St. Augustine, Fla.

Prosecution of the profiteers who are alleged to have forced the price up by market manipulations is necessary, Manley declared.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Altho In Jail, Chiros Earn 1 Simoleon Each

How to earn money in jail? was needed to teach the art to four chiropodists in Allen-av. jail. They were subpoenaed Tuesday afternoon as witnesses in a case in common pleas court. Some day when the costs are paid each of them will get a nice bright dollar, worth 50 billion Russian rubles, right out of the county treasury.

The four practitioners were summoned as experts in the case of Zilmar Ward Wise, against the Ohio Medical association.

Wise is seeking to have his license to practice the chiropodist profession restored. It was revoked in 1919 on account of advertisements alleged to guarantee the absolute cure of many ills.

Files of Lima papers containing the objectionable advertisements were introduced as exhibits.

The four Lima chiros told Judge Becker all about their profession. "It is the sub-laxation of the spinal column," declared Glenn V. John, "whereby pressure on the nerves is released."

Others called in to explain the methods of the profession were G. L. Potter, Ezekiel Hadsell and B. E. Swann. The four are serving out fines for practice of medicine without a license.

A motion to dismiss the case, filed by the defendant, caused Prosecuting Attorney Eugene T. Lippincott to ask a postponement in order to allow him to prepare and file a brief.

"The medical association started this," he told the court, "and I don't just know what line they want to pursue."

G. P. DILDINE'S FATHER, OLD BANK OFFICIAL IN OHIO, DIES IN TOLEDO

Gilson P. Dildine, 913 W. High-st., assistant secretary of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, accompanied by members of his family, went to Toledo to attend funeral services Thursday afternoon for his father, Dallas P. Dildine, 75, who died in his home at 5 a. m. Wednesday.

Dildine was vice president of the Commercial Savings Bank at Toledo and was said to be the oldest official of any banking institution in Ohio.

WILSON MAY PICK CANDIDATE

Expected to Play Big Part in Presidential Campaign

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Woodrow Wilson, whose political activity is increasing day by day, will endeavor to play a prominent part in the selection of a Democratic presidential candidate in 1924, according to his closest friends.

Mr. Wilson, as his health continues to improve, is taking a much more active interest in party affairs. During the last few weeks he is said to have had conferences with political leaders at his home in Sea-isle, N. J.

It is quite possible that he will not favor the candidacy of any of those now being mentioned but will produce a "dark horse" all his own and ask his nomination.

The sharp divergence of views among Democratic chieftains is indicated by the fact that Mr. Wilson and his son-in-law, William G. McAdoo, have asked Governor Sweet, of Colorado, to appoint different men as successors to the late Senator Nicholson. Mr. Wilson favors Huston Thompson, while McAdoo argues Morrison Shafroth, son of a former senator.

This is not considered a political break between the two, but is indicative of the situation resulting from efforts of various groups to gain control of the party.

Mr. Wilson's great hope still is that the United States will join the league of nations. For that reason he desires a 1924 candidate pledged to such a course. Thus a large volume of mail he is keeping in touch with the political situation throughout the country.

WILL STRAIGHTEN ROAD

Final steps toward straightening Sully Point road in Sugar Creek-ly, were taken Wednesday, when the county commissioners authorized the condemnation and purchase of a new right of way around the north end of Gomer cemetery. Four sharp corners in the road will be eliminated by the change.

DELPHOS FACES FINANCIAL CRISIS

NEEDS AID QUICK, AUDITOR SAYS

Deficiency Bonds in Sum of $10,000 Believed Necessary

REVALUATION SEEN AS HELP

Salary Funds May be Exhausted on April 1st

There will hardly be a thin dime for Father Delphos to jingle in the pocket of his jeans after April 1.

The city faces the worst financial crisis in its history, it is declared.

It has been fortunate in making the steep grade during January, February and March, but now an absolutely "broke" condition looms ahead, according to City Auditor W. H. Shaffer.

Since it has become an impossibility under the statutes to issue deficiency bonds, the city will have to take the only possible course and issue notes of indebtedness, which later will be taken up with refunding bonds, officials point out.

The amount of the notes needed is indefinite, according to Shaffer, but it is believed an issue of $10,000 will be necessary. The city will immediately issue this temporary relief on January 1, 1924. It will be impossible longer to issue refunding bonds, the section of law governing them having been declared unconstitutional.

City Solicitor R. A. Lindemann was instructed by council Tuesday night to prepare for the issuance of notes, which may be authorized April 9 by council. He countered Wednesday with C. F. Hesser, state examiner, who has been in the city for several days.

Every working fund of the city is anemic, the result of a cut in tax revenue from 3.43 to 2.43 mills. The financial crisis was predicted in January after council passed the first semi-annual appropriation ordinance of the year, authorizing $25,000 for city expenses. This ordinance, passed on the strength of anticipated revenues, did not bring to the city near the amount authorized, the city auditor said. Had it not been for the first semi-annual settlement from the county last month, the city would not have been able to pay its light bill, he added.

Shaffer warned city officials at the council meeting Tuesday night that unless immediate relief is extended there will be no more salaries paid after April 1.

OFFICIALS RELUCTANT
City officials face the necessity of indebtedness notes with reluctance. A debt will be piled up that will be a thorn in the side of the city for many years, it is feared. In the last few years over $18,000 worth of deficiency bonds were issued by the city.

Revaluation and the Taft uniform tax law with which the Ohio General Assembly is now wrestling, are expected to extend relief. There has not been a revaluation in Delphos for 13 years. Property valuation is entirely out of proportion to the funds needed for successful governmental operation, city officials declare.

The tax duplicate of the city is $6,000,000 and should be a great deal higher, it is stated.

MAY CHANGE DATE OF GOMER-DELPHOS GAME

Application has been made by the Gomer high school baseball team for a change in date from May 11, when it is scheduled to meet Delphos high school at Delphos.

May 11 is a Friday date and the game will probably be moved forward to May 9 or 10. Desire by Gomer to attend the high school track meet at Lima May 11 is given as the reason.

DELPHOS COMMENCEMENT PLANS ARE FORMING

Members of the 1923 graduating class at Delphos high school will soon issue invitations for the annual commencement exercises, the week of May 13.

A committee from the class met Tuesday evening and selected the type of invitation that will be employed.

DELPHOS BUSINESS TO SUSPEND ON GOOD FRIDAY

Every line of business in Delphos except restaurants will be closed Friday from 12 to 3 p. m. Approval of all business men was secured Tuesday by H. A. Lang, K. of C. committeeman, who made a canvass of the city.

The restaurants will open from 12 to 1, but after that hour all trade will be suspended, in observance of Good Friday.

DOUBLE CANTATA IS PLANNED AT DELPHOS

Date of a double cantata, to be given by the Delphos Choral society, will be decided upon soon. The society rehearsed Tuesday evening at the City Hall.

Owing to numerous other events immediately after Lent, the choral society may not be able to hold the cantata, until the early part of May, according to J. A. Breece, director.

BODY OF DELPHOS MAN TO BE INTERRED IN WILMINGTON CEMETERY

Body of Clarence J. Sheeter, 39, former Delphos man and for the last eight years proprietor of a large store in Wilmington, will not be brought to Delphos for burial according to information from relatives Wednesday.

Sheeter died at Wilmington from pneumonia. Arrangements were made to bring the body to Delphos Thursday night and have burial services Friday, but obsequies were conducted Wednesday morning at Wilmington and interment will take place there Friday at 10 a. m.

This arrangement was authorized by his mother, Mrs. Catherine Sheeter, who is hurrying from California, time to attend the services.

LIQUOR SEEPAGE INTO AMERICA BRINGS ACTION

WASHINGTON — Assistant Secretary Moss today called on Collector Stuart of the customs house at New York for a full explanation of the order issued March 19 by Thomas W. Whitte, surveyor of that port, permitting passengers on incoming steamships to land with one quart of liquor for medicinal purposes. Moss indicated that the order probably later would be materially altered.

Moss said the treasury department's information indicated the order was intended to permit passengers who were ill to bring alcoholic stimulants ashore with them when necessary, but that on its face it appeared to be in direct violation of the Volstead act and of customs regulations prohibiting the inclusion of liquor as a part of a passenger's baggage.

STATE DEPARTMENT MAY NOT ENTER GAS GATTLE

COLUMBUS — The Attorney General Crabbe has been asked by two Cleveland attorneys to bring suit in the state supreme court to oust the East Ohio Gas Company from doing business in the state on the ground that it is violating the Valentine anti-trust laws, the state's legal department is not expected to take a hand in the fight between the gas company and the city of Cleveland involving the question of rates.

"There is nothing before this department and nothing can be done at the present time," the attorney general said. "There is no evidence of unlawful combination in restraint of trade in the hands of this department to warrant bringing out proceedings. There would be nothing gained by rushing blindly into the courts and filing a suit."

DELPHOS COUNCIL REVAMPS LAW

Penalty for Violation of Liquor Ordinance Reduced

CONFORMS TO NEW RULING

Street Improvement Program is Authorized

Delphos city council Tuesday night overhauled its liquor law administration, substituting a new ordinance for one passed March 24, 1921.

The change was made on recommendation by C. F. Hesser, state examiner, to City Solicitor R. A. Lindemann, following completion recently of the periodical report of city officials.

The old ordinance did not conform to a ruling by the attorney general two months before its passage. The ruling is that all fines imposed under such an ordinance can be no greater than $500, as offenses coming under it are construed as misdemeanors.

The original ordinance provided for a penalty of from $100 to $1,000 for the first offense, $300 to $2,000 for the second and grand jury investigation for the third. The new ordinance provides for a fine of from $100 to $500 for the first offense, $300 to $500 for the second and grand jury investigation for the third.

The city will not have to rebate any portions of liquor fines imposed under the ordinance, because the full penalty was never paid by any offender, Mayor J. K. Williams declared.

Council adopted a resolution granting permission to Van Wert co. commissioners to improve Broadway, Elm, Cline, State and Clay-st. approaches to the city from the country highways. Such streets on the Allen-co. side of the city will be improved in the same manner, but a resolution is not required by the Allen-co. commissioners.

MAY REOPEN STREET

Council reported a suggestion by property owners that a driveway south of the Shaffer sawmill along the Clover Leaf Railroad be opened to general traffic. The driveway was originally Greenbaum-st. and was abandoned many years ago for railroad purposes.

Work on the improvement of the street crossing of the A. C. & Y. Railroad may be speeded following complaint to councilmen from employees at the Delcel-Wemmer cigar factory, many of whom are said to be inconvenienced by its condition of disrepair.

Water supply to the San Felice addition was broached. Councilmen reported insurance underwriters have appealed to the state fire marshal because of lack of fire hydrants.

The territory was annexed to the city a year ago, but supply of water there for fire fighting and sanitary purposes has been held up by lack of funds. The state of affairs existing there was brought to attention of the local fire department six weeks ago when the Frank Brown home on E. Seventh-st. was partially destroyed. Almost the maximum length of hose carried on the city's motor fire fighter had to be used to reach the blaze.

SEEK TO WIDEN THREE STREETS IN DELPHOS IMPROVEMENT CAMPAIGN

A 30-foot street may be asked by Delphos city council in the improvement of Lima-av., Spencer-av. and South-st. links of the Harding Highway approach into the city.

Allen-co. commissioners and Marion-up trustees have signified their willingness to begin construction immediately, according to Councilman Ben Davis. The city will pay two per cent of the total cost, plus street intersections, the property owners and trustees 25 per cent of the remainder and the county 50 per cent.

Nothing is known by Delphos council concerning willingness of the commissioners and trustees to participate in a 30-foot street. The city solicitor was instructed to confer with Prosecuting Attorney Eugene Lippincott.

There exists some doubt among councilmen whether the city's share of the expense would be increased should the street to be constructed wider than 30 feet.

It is an absolute necessity to make it that width, councilmen say, because of heavy and continuous traffic. Spencer-av. and South-st. skirt the new Delphos city park.

Councilman Davis declared that Elida has secured a 30-foot extension of the Harding Highway into the village.

A motion was offered Tuesday night to adopt a resolution advocating a 30-foot street, but was withdrawn until more definite information is secured.

A body of property owners from E. Fourth-st. was expected at council meeting Tuesday night, but failed to appear. There is declared to be much favorable sentiment for improvement of the street.

BIG ORDERS WILL ADD TO SIGN PLANT FORCE

Employment of additional workmen at the Arkkraft sign factory, 1118 S. Main-st. in the immediate future was announced Wednesday by Charles G. Myer, manager.

Increases in the working force, he said, is necessitated by receipt of orders for 50 large signs from the G. G. Goodrich Rubber company and 100 small window signs from the Seibeling Tire company, Akron concerns.

The present working crew is 12 men.

Seed potatoes—Dorsey's.

You will be surprised—Dorsey's.

HEAVY SEAS PREVENT AID REACHING SICK MAN IN DANGER IN LAKE ERIE

CLEVELAND — Heavy seas, lashed by a 45 mile gale this morning defeated a desperate attempt by members of the United States coast guard crew to carry a doctor to the water works crib five miles out in Lake Erie, where one of the crib attendants lay sick with pneumonia. Ten men, under Captain Crapo, fought the waves and the gale for several hours in their 30 foot power boat before they were forced to turn back to the station.

The small craft, tossed about by the turbulent seas, could not approach near enough to the crib for the physician to be landed.

Harry Holmworth is the sick man, according to a radio "S. O. S." picked up by a Cleveland amateur operator who notified Water Works Commissioner Ruggles.

After returning to Cleveland, Dr. Harry L. Bard, the physician who made the unsuccessful trip with the coast guard men, gave the men at the crib advice by radio as to how to care for their sick comrade.

DEATH IS PROBED

Woman Dies in Chicago Following Hooch Party

CHICAGO. — (United Press). — Examination of vital organs of Mrs. Elizabeth Orsinger, 28, pretty beauty parlor proprietor, to determine whether her death was caused by alcoholism following an alleged "hooch" party, was started today.

Coroner Oscar Wolff ordered William B. McNally, chemist, to make an analysis to determine possible effects of liquor which Miss Edna Watson, the young woman's companion on the "party" said Miss Orsinger drank.

MAIRE OBSEQUIES TO BE HELD AT RESIDENCE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Edward J. Maire, 56, Lima oil operator, who died suddenly Monday at his winter home in Miami, Florida, will be held Saturday afternoon at the residence, 564 W. Market-st. The time has not been set. Rev. Victor Smith, rector of Christ's Episcopal church, will officiate. Maire will be in the Maire mausoleum at Woodlawn cemetery.

The body will arrive in Lima sometime Friday, accompanied by his brother, Frank J. Maire and his sister, Miss Frances Maire, who was at his bedside at the time of death.

SUIT OVER WATER RENT OPENS IN COURT HERE

Trial of a suit to recover alleged illegal water rentals exacted from Mrs. Anna Bloom, 618 S. Central-av. by the city commenced before Judge Fred C. Becker Wednesday. The case is the first of several similar actions brought against the city to come up.

Mrs. Bloom and Harry Bloom, junk dealer, alleged that in the six months period from January 1, 1921 to June of the same year, the city charged them $104 for water rental. The rent for the six months period preceding was only $14.

The Blooms assert that the amount of the bill is due to a defect in the meter, which caused excessive registration.

RIVALRY IN LOVE CAUSE OF PEACE BOND HEARING

Alleged rivalry for the hand and heart of a mutual sweetheart, is said to have had more or less influence in the filing of peace bond proceedings heard by Justice E. M. Botkin Wednesday.

Aaron Harroff, 70, Auglaize-co. farmer, was arraigned with threatening to kill C. O. Roush, E. North-st. Harroff, accompanied by an officer, visited the Roush home and is alleged to have remarked that he would take his alleged rival's life if the latter came to his farm. Roush is a younger man.

"Evidence on the matter seemed to be hearsay, and the court dismissed the case."

SPENCERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL IS INSPECTED

C. B. Hery, of the State Department of Education, inspected the Spencerville high school Wednesday. This visit was in response to a request of the board of education that judgment be passed as to the sufficiency of its equipment.

Spencerville, which has the rating of first grade high school, recently added new equipment for the teaching of manual training and domestic science and an augmented teaching staff provided.

NEW ERIE TIME TABLE FOLDER IS INNOVATION

A new Erie Railroad folder which will be issued April 1, may prove the forerunner of changes in the train schedule during the summer months. It was learned Wednesday.

The new folder will show complete schedules between terminal points on one full page. The new plan is being tried out in an effort to simplify information for travelers.

Some slight rearrangement of train schedules, may be made later in the spring. C. M. Aldrich, ticket agent predicted.

BANKER DIES AT HIS HOME IN CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI — Charles R. Hubbard, 73, a banker and prominent livestock broker, died at his home here today after an illness of short duration. Mr. Hubbard was vice president of the Stock Yards Bank and Trust Company at the time of his death.

LOSING MONEY IN STOCK SHIPPING

Shrinkage is Big Item, County Agent Tells Farmers

IT'S TIME NOW TO SPRAY

Meetings Planned by H. J. Ridge at Various Points

Allen-co. farmers are losing more money than is necessary from shrinkage in shipping, H. J. Ridge, of the Allen County Farm bureau believes. Inasmuch as few Allen-co. steers are enroute to markets more than 36 hours, it is possible by judicious feeding to cut the shrinkage to a minimum, Ridge states.

Ridge cites the advice of Paul Gerlaugh, of Ohio State university, an authority on the subject of cattle shrinkage. In a bulletin issued to the Farm Bureau, Gerlaugh states that in the two days preceding shipment, laxative feeds, should be substituted by such feeds as timothy hay, clover, straw and whole oats. The grain ration should be reduced one-half and theilage allowance one-third during the same period. Water should be withheld four or five hours prior to loading, he says.

The idea is that cattle should arrive at the market somewhat hungry and thirsty and under these circumstances will take a normal fill and go over the scales as nearly normal weight as possible.

Now is the time for Allen-co. orchardists to spray for peach curl, Ridge warns. Those who failed to spray last fall can still secure the protection of lime sulphur if the buds are still dormant.

H. J. Ridge spoke to the members of the Beaverdam Farm Bureau at the Town Hall Tuesday night. Members of the local unit viewed the wool pool film and listened to a radio program. Ridge spoke on boys' and girls' club work.

Members of the Allen-co. cooperative livestock shipping organization have shipped out of the county an average of a car of livestock a day so far this month, according to Carson F. Metz, of the Lima Farm Bureau office. This week cars have been shipped from Cairo, Harrod, Beaverdam, Spencerville and Elida. Hogs have made up the largest part of the shipments.

H. J. Ridge will meet with residents of Shawnee-tp Wednesday night at the Shawnee grange, for the purpose of organizing a unit of the farm bureau.

Mrs. Sherman Eley and Mrs. Edward Steinbrook will have charge of the poultry club of the Amanda-tp Farm bureau for this year. Mrs. Howard L. Kay will have charge of the clothing clubs.

Harry Marx, son of Henry Marx, is to have charge of the new acre fruit farm of the Holman estate on the St. Marys-Wapakoneta-rd.

The Perry-tp Farm bureau will MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT FOR REORGANIZATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS, AT THE PERRY-TP SCHOOLHOUSE. F. P. HARDIN IS CHAIRMAN.

AGREEMENT RATIFIED; OVERHEAD WORK WILL START ON METCALF-ST

Formal ratification of the agreement with the L. E. & W. Railroad by the city and county commissioners ended a four year effort on the part of the city to eliminate the dangerous Metcalf-st crossing by the construction of a viaduct over the L. E. & W. tracks.

The railroad purchased property for the approaches several years ago and made plans to construct the viaduct, but work was delayed by inability of county officials to come to an agreement as to construction plans. Work of building the viaduct will be done by the railroad company under supervision of city and county. It is estimated that the cost of the structure will be about $225,000, of which 65 per cent will be paid by the railway company and 17 1/2 per cent each by the city and county.

It is expected that work on the viaduct will be started soon and may be completed within the year. Contracts have already been awarded for the steel work. The bridge is to be over 200 feet long and 29 feet in width and will provide overhead passage for the street railway and for vehicles.

FRITZ MANN SUICIDE THEORY IS ATTACKED

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Striking its last blow at the defense suicide theory of the death of Fritz Mann, the state today opened its case against Dr. Louis L. Jacobs, accused by a grand jury of the murder of the petite dancing girl.

Thru Coroner Cuyler C. Kelley, Claude Chas. and other witnesses, District Attorney Chester C. Kamp, and his assistant Guy C. Sollock, established the fact that the dead hands were carefully folded when her body was found in the sand at Torrey Pines beach January 15.

This fact was the first brought out by the prosecution in its effort to prove that the murder was actually committed in connection with the girl's death.

HARDWARE STORE ROBBED; SAFE Baffles THIEVES

Local police were notified Wednesday of the robbery of the Jones Hardware at Venedocia and of an attempt to break into the safe at the Equity elevator at Cayote. Both towns are in Van Wert-co. and it is believed that the same person was responsible for both affairs.

Two cheap watches, a lady's watch and two cases were taken from the hardware store. An attempt was made to open the safe there. At the elevator the safe was badly battered but it had withstood blows from a heavy sledge.

SHOT BY WOMAN

FORT WORTH, Texas — C. E. Myers, 34, Frederick, Okla., was shot three times this morning by a young woman as he was entering the building where he was employed. The young woman was taken into custody by police. Myers whose wounds are believed fatal, says he never saw the woman before. He has a family in Frederick.

SENATE PROBE IS COMPLETED

Committee to Report on Findings at Columbus Soon

IRREGULARITIES ARE DENIED

Senators Absolved in Charges Linked With Hotel Bill

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Investigation of alleged irregular methods in connection with the handling of the hotel liability bill of Senator L. L. Marshall of Cleveland, apparently had been completed today. After a session yesterday afternoon the senate committee adjourned to meet at the call of Senator Frank E. Burch, Akron, the chairman, and it was said that no more witnesses would be called.

The committee's action in placing on the witness stand Senator Joseph J. Rowe, of Cleveland, whose name had been brought into the investigation had the effect of virtually absolving him from any connection with the minor of irregular practices on which the investigation was initiated, as any person who appears as a witness becomes immune from prosecution under the statutes.

Senator Marshall, the author of the bill, was placed in a similar position thru having testified at a previous hearing before the committee.

SAWYER ON STAND

Ben V. Sawyer, Cleveland attorney, against whom witnesses had made charges of attempting to obtain payment of hotel bills of Senator Rowe, was the only other witness at yesterday's hearing. Sawyer denied generally and categorically that he had made any suggestion that Senator Rowe's or other legislators' hotel bills be paid or reduced and that he had made any effort to have W. G. Byers, Cleveland hotel man, present a bill to the Ohio Hotel Association for legal fees, which it was charged were intended for use in payment of Senator Rowe's expenses.

GENERAL DENIAL

Rowe's testimony consisted of general denial that he knew of any legislator who had solicited "things of value" for pushing legislation or of any attempts by outsiders to obtain favorable action thru the offering of rewards. Rowe said that he had never discussed alleged proposals that his hotel expenses be paid and that he had not been particularly interested in hotel legislation.

Flat and emphatic denial was made by Sawyer in his testimony that he had attempted in any way to influence hotel legislation. He was not employed by the hotel association and the only aid he had given Byers who formerly was a member of the association's legislative committee, was as a friend.

Loans of $50 and $300 made by Sawyer to Rowe on different occasions and for which Rowe gave his note in the case of the $300, were declared by Sawyer to have been made at his suggestion, purely on a friendly basis and without any reference to any hotel bill. Sawyer said he had gotten the money in both cases from Byers, without Byers knowing for what purpose he intended using it and that Senator Rowe did not know where he obtained it. He also said during his testimony that he did not know where Sawyer got

TOPICS OF THE DAY BRIEFLY TOLD

Another Conference—Can America Gain?—Ruhr Gettings Worse—Current Events Discussed For Students And Adults

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

Has the average American so very much to gain by a settlement of Europe's post-war problems of all sorts?

A world conference for the adjustment of these problems—financial and economic—was declared necessary at the International Chamber of Commerce congress in Rome last week.

The resolution calling on all countries to join in the discussion was offered by President F. L. Fray of the Greenville (Pa.) Steel Car Company; and the chairman of the finance section of the congress, which adopted it, was Vice President Willy Booth of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York.

So the proposition has quite an American flavor. Members of the congress took the view that the United States is so mixed up in the world's affairs that it's impossible for her to enjoy real prosperity unless the rest of the world enjoys the same thing—"without recognition," as the resolution put it, "of the interdependence of the world's economic organization."

DOES IT INTEREST ANYBODY?

Of course it's true that all this applies to America's foreign trade. Americans who want to sell goods abroad can't sell them if conditions abroad are so disorganized that the countries there are unable to buy.

And the American members of the International Chamber of Commerce must be interested in international trade, or they wouldn't have joined that kind of an organization.

From their standpoint, then, a feeling of anxiety to straighten the foreign situation out is natural enough.

But there's a group of Americans who can't see how it affects them. Their business is at home, they say. They don't care if they never sell any goods outside the United States.

The foreign traders' answer is that there's got to be a foreign market for American products or they'll pile up at home. If so, they say we'll have hard times — labor'll starve.

Why? The others ask. If labor produces more than it needs to eat and wear and go flivvering in, why should it starve? Why doesn't it eat and wear and go flivvering up to the limit of satiety and let the over-products go, or store it away in case it's needed later on?

NOT ALL LIKE US

True, there are countries that can't afford to look at it this way. For instance, England can't. She hasn't the space to produce the raw material she requires. She produces more of some things than she needs, but not nearly enough of others. She's got to trade what she over-produces for what she doesn't produce at all.

The United States, however, is entirely self-supporting. She could be out off from the rest of the world the money. Both loans were repaid, it was said. Both Sawyer and Rowe said they had been friends for many years and frequently loaned each other money.

The Marshall bill which had been reported out by the cities committee now is in the judiciary committee to which it was referred upon motion of Majority Leader Kryder when rumors concerning it first were heard.

Drafting of a report of the committee was expected to begin immediately and be presented to the senate before adjournment.

forever and not know the difference, except perhaps that she might have to get along without a few things like coffee and some tropical fruits and arctic fox pelts and "such."

If the United States can't get along by herself, ask the skeptics, why doesn't the whole world over-produce and have hard times, lacking facilities to unload her surplus onto Mars?

TRADED MOSTLY AT HOME

And, anyway, it's also asked, was America's foreign trade so very important a factor in keeping her surplus down, in the days before smash was played with it by the war?

In answer to this question, it transpires that the pre-war exports of the United States were around 5 per cent of her total commerce, the rest of her trading having been done at home.

HARDLY EXCITED AT TALL

In short, persons who doubt the real seriousness—to themselves—of the world business perils that the International Chamber of Commerce talks about, incline to the view that the United States can be about as prosperous without foreign trade as she can with it.

Not that they have any objection to seeing Europe helped out in her time of trouble, if it can be done without too much sacrifices on their part, but personally they don't see how it makes a great deal of difference to the average American either way.

ENGLAND KEEPING THE RULES

Anybody "shot up" by the British navy henceforward will have the satisfaction of knowing that it was done strictly in accordance with the terms of the international arms limitation conference in Washington early in President Harding's administration.

The United States government heard recently that the range of some of the guns on England's capital ships had been increased beyond the limit which this agreement fixed, and Secretary of State Hughes said as much in a speech. As soon as King George's ambassador read it, he notified Secretary Hughes that he had been misinformed and the latter was quick to apologize.

It is assured that there will be no bombardments except strictly according to Royle.

MORE SMOKE THAN FIRE

The German government professed to be badly worried by threats of a royalist "coup," but not much trouble developed except a little that the authorities stirred up in Berlin—and then suppressed, of course, to prevent it from going too far.

But it goes without saying that the situation in the Ruhr keeps the country badly unsettled and it wouldn't be surprising if something unpleasant really were to happen any time.

This is true of France, too, where his political opponents are raking Premier Poincaré mercilessly, in the Chamber of Deputies and out of it. There seems to be some ground for criticism when it's considered that France and Belgium, between them, are getting only an estimated 3000 tons of coal and coke from the Ruhr a day, as compared with 40,000 they were getting before they seized the mines, in order to get more. And the franc has slumped from 7.42 American cents to 6.96 in the same time.

Herr Stinnes has gone to Rome to see President Gary of the United States Steel Corporation—so they say—relative to plans for solving the Ruhr problem.

Most people think these discussions between the business magnates mean a lot more than discussions between the governments do.

Trouble Ahead, Middle Point Marshal Says

Middlepoint is having a tough row to hoe, with the modern era coming in.

In fact, according to Dave Lea, town marshal, the boys are even playing dominoes, checkers, and cards sometimes when his watchful eye is cast the other way.

"A lot of people are running around carrying guns," the marshal said. "Someone is going to get shot around here some day. Just mark my word."

The guardian of the peace is doing a lot of "detective work," he admitted, and hopes to "clean up" the place soon.

Sound Testimonial Evidence showing the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of women is constantly being published in this paper. The strongest recommendation any article can have is that borne by the persons who have used it. Once ill with ailments that caused suffering and despair, but now restored to the joys of health, from a grateful heart multitudes of women write letters of appreciation to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass. Such evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of women should induce every suffering woman to try it. —Adv.

CENTRAL HIGH LIBRARY GETS NEW BOOKS, CASES

Central High School library is undergoing a complete change during the Easter vacation, according to officials at that school. New glass is being placed in the book-cases and other pieces of furniture repaired.

At its regular meeting Tuesday night the school board appropriated $400 for new books. The supply of science and practical books is rather depleted and efforts will be made to stock the library in this line.

At the present time many students use the library as a reference room and it is thought that with the new text books interest in the library will increase. There are almost 2,000 volumes on the shelves at this time, in addition to many magazines and periodicals.

In the Dark Ages

Centuries ago, before the great strides that science has made, all sorts of silly methods of treatment were resorted to by sick people.

Blood was drawn from the veins of those who needed all the blood they had.

Silly!

But not one whit more silly and useless than the many attempts made right now to effect cures through the use of useless nostrums and patent medicines.

Any illness should have the skilled attention of a physician. Consult your physician when you are sick. Let him prescribe proper treatment and if medicines are needed get them here, where the preparation of medicines is given first attention.

ACTOR HERE KNEW "DIVINE SARAH"

Star Appeared on Program
With Mme. Bernhardt in Paris

MEANS DEAD MAN'S EYEBROW

Orpheum Artist, Wounded in War, is Reminiscent

Death of Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt brought home to one temporary Lima resident recollections of the time when, as a soldier entertainer, he appeared in the same program with the talented French actress at a benefit given in Paris, April 28, 1919.

Lawrence T. Hager, former member of the 320th Machine Gun Battalion, 32nd Division, now a member of the Harrison's Review, appearing at the Orpheum theatre, told of meeting Mme. Bernhardt.

"She read a poem, dedicated to the American soldiers, seated on the stage in an arm chair," he said. "Her death at the time was very bad, and she had been seriously ill, but insisted on appearing."

At the time, Hager, was a member of the "Nine Whiz-Bangs," a troupe of doughboy singers.

Hager wears a permanent make-up as the result of wounds received near Grand Pie, in the Argonne, when he was the sole survivor of a machine gun crew of 14 men sent to infiltrate the German lines.

A portion of the right side of his face was torn away by Teuton bullets.

DEAD MAN'S EYE BROW
He was picked up in a shell hole and rushed to an emergency hospital. An eyebrow, taken off a dead soldier, was grafted on in place of the original. A portion of the frontal bone was replaced with a silver plate. The shattered jaw bone was repaired with a part of one of Hager's own ribs.

"They certainly did a good job on me," said the actor-singer pointing to his chin. "Only this little scar shows."

As a reward for his services, Hager was given the Congressional Medal of Honor and two French citations.

He has a very valuable collection of relics, including a gold watch and chain and from one of the men from the body of a Captain in the Fusiliers guard, whom he killed in a pistol duel in the streets of St. Joven.

Hager served in the same division with Sergeant Alvin York, the war's greatest hero.

HUSBAND STAYED OUT NIGHTS. WIFE CHARGES IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Charges that Jacob Abner Kunkleman, switchman, remained away from home all night frequently and refused to give an account of his whereabouts, were related Wednesday in a divorce trial instituted by Mrs. Lelah Kunkleman.

Mrs. Kunkleman told of living in Lima, Van Wert and Gary, Indiana, where her husband worked on the railroad. His wages, she said, averaged $160 a month.

"None of your business," Kunkleman is alleged to have told his mate, when she asked where he had been.

"I found out that he was going to dance," declared the wife, "coming in at 3 and 4 in the morning most every day."

Kunkleman is fighting the action and will tell his side of the marital dispute later in the case. The couple have one son, Virgil, 12. Judge E. R. Mastman is hearing the action.

EDITORS BLAMED FOR U. S. UNPREPAREDNESS

PRESNO, Calif. — America lacks the proper kind of preparedness and the American press is largely responsible, declared Admiral William S. Sims in an address here last night.

"There is not a competent military critic on any newspaper in the United States, while on the other side there isn't a newspaper without one," asserted Admiral Sims.

"When the Washington conference was held and when the four power treaty was signed it was 'front page stuff' for the newspapers and every newspaper had to make some comment on the disarmament question. If they knew what they were talking about all right but if they didn't, so it had to read it anyway."

GERMANY AGREES TO HUGHES PLAN

Favors Conference to Settle Reparations Problems

U. S. NOTIFIED BY BERLIN

American Participation in Meeting is Included

(BY A. L. BRADFORD)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Germany has officially suggested to the United States that an international business conference, to be participated in by America, be called for the purpose of settling the reparations problems, it was learned today.

This was contained in the memorandum recently laid before Secretary Hughes by the German government, which set forth the complete position of Germany in the occupation of the Ruhr and indicating how far the Cuno government was ready to go in bringing about settlement.

The same document was presented to Great Britain.

The United Press herewith can reveal the nature and details of this presentation of Germany's case, the contents of which have been kept as a closely guarded secret.

BLOCKED BY FRANCE
The German suggestion for an international business conference was in the nature of advocacy of the proposal by Secretary Hughes to Europe last December that the reparations questions be turned over to a commission of financial and economic experts including American representatives for recommendation of a figure within Germany's capacity to pay.

The Hughes proposal was blocked by a rebuff from France. The memorandum of the Cuno government declares Germany is ready and willing to accept the Hughes plan and elaborates on the proposal.

Should France and all the other nations concerned accept the proposal for such an international conference, it is understood, Germany would seek a great international loan, part of which would be turned over to the allies on the reparations account. First, however,

Germany would insist that the French and Belgian troops be withdrawn from the Ruhr.

MONARCHISTS ARRESTED
BERLIN — German monarchists are being arrested by French troops in the Ruhr Valley, officials received here today stated.

Three new towns, Emmerich, Wesel and Mettmann, have been declared in a state of siege by the French.

Big unemployment demonstrations have been reported in Dresden, Gelsenkirchen, Dortmund and Essen. These are said to have been incited by the communists in the region.

REPARATIONS NOTE
PARIS — (Associated Press) — While various interpretations may be put upon the note the reparations commission is sending to Germany in connection with the foreign currency loan issue, the correct one according to some of the best informed circles is that it holds in substance that there is no question of the German government's right to offer the loan but there does exist a question as to the security it may give.

The text of the note calls attention to Article 248 of the treaty of Versailles defining priority rights in reparations. It is apparent that there was considerable discussion before the text of the note was drafted, and the discussion made its first necessary to obtain the interpretation placed upon Article 248 by the legal section of the commission.

The French contended this article applied virtually to any assets Germany unless her reparations obligations were first satisfied.

It is affirmed the original intention of the French was to prevent the launching of the loan with a guarantee by the Reichsbank but now that the loan is said to be but sixty per cent subscribed the original French position was temporarily modified.

As to the effect the note will have it is contended that the whole reparations problem has been put in the melting pot by the presence of France and Belgium in the Ruhr and that when the eventual settlement comes sweeping changes may be made.

A Correction

In our advertisement of March 23rd, an error was made in describing a special group of new sweaters.

The advertisement should have read:

Wool Sweaters at$1.95 and up Fibre & Worsted Sweaters . . . 2.95 and up Silk & Wool Sweaters 3.50 and up Jersey Sweaters $5.00 to $9.85

It is the policy of this store to carefully guard against misstatements in advertising—and we thank the "Better Business Bureau" for calling our attention to the fact that the word "silk" was used instead of "wool." It was an error in our Advertising Department.

DEATH SENTENCE PROTESTED

Europe Stirred Over Russia Condemning Archbishop

LONDON — (United Press) — Possibility of the execution of a condemned Catholic prelate by the Russian soviet government today aroused all England and caused debate of the subject in the house of commons and scores of telegrams of protest.

This nation may take some action if the archbishop Zepiak is sent to his death on charges of opposing the soviet system for which he was condemned to die by a soviet court.

Poland already has sent a protest against the proposed execution, it is said, and the investigation is causing the utmost confusion.

A temporary stay of execution granted by the all-Russian central executive committee has not allayed the fears of those who condemn religious persecution. A proposal was made in parliament here that England hold their one communist M. P. Newbold as a hostage and the statement was met with cheers.

OPEN NEGOTIATIONS
WARSAW — (Associated Press) — The Polish government has been informed thru the soviet minister in Warsaw that the death sentence against Archbishop Zepiak, head of the Roman Catholic church in Russia, will not be carried out by the Russian government "at least for the present" and that the affair will be taken up in diplomatic negotiations. Premier Sikorski made this announcement to the Polish senate this morning.

UTILITIES BILL IS PASSED IN HOUSE

Permits Consolidation of Ohio City-Owned Plants

TAFT TAX BILL IS UP TODAY

Death Blow Dealt to Proposed Levy on Gasoline

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The present general assembly will not enact a gasoline tax law. This was definitely settled yesterday when the house of representatives by a vote of 56 yeas to 53 no tabbed the bill by Representative Brown, Republican, Champlain, proposing a tax of two cents per gallon on gasoline. As it requires a two-thirds vote to take the bill from the table no effort is to be made to attempt to resurrect it. Mr. Brown acknowledged defeat, but predicted that a gas tax law will be enacted within a few years.

Mr. Brown was unable to present his amendment proposing a reduction of fifty per cent in the automobile license fees, the action to table coming on the amendment proposed by Representative Calvert, Clark-co, to cut the tax to one cent per gallon. Tabling of the amendment carried the bill with it which was explained to the house before the vote was taken.

MEASURES PASSED

Working under pressure in the hope of completing its main work by Saturday night in order that recess for two weeks may be taken, the house last night worked until 10 o'clock on its calendar, passing a number of minor measures. Among the bills passed was the measure by Representative De Armond, of Butler-co, which would permit municipally owned utilities to consolidate. The measure would enable the city of Hamilton to consolidate its electric, water and gas plants.

The senate election committee last night voted against reporting out for passage the bill by Senator Wait of Cleveland that would have doubled the membership of the central committees of political parties by adding an equal number of women. It also killed the bill by Senator Miller of Butler-co that would have lengthened the terms of members of the central committees to two years.

The senate was prepared today to take up for passage the Taft, Albaugh and Robinson taxation bills and also had on its calendar as a special order of business the resolution of Senator Clifford, Toledo, proposing an investigation of the alleged "stranglehold" which the road material interests hold in Ohio. The resolution by Senator Dorch of Akron, proposing an investigation of the subject of minimum wages for women and children in industry was on the house calendar for action today also.

In the house the special committee which heard the Pike county election contest was prepared to make its report and recommendations. Whether the committee proposes to recommend the unseating of Representative Robert S. Wyne, Democrat, because of corrupt conditions generally prevailing at the elections in Pike county last November, committee members have not indicated. Members of the committee have indicated, however, that they might recommend that some court action be taken to remedy conditions there.

Warning cards to solicitors for distribution to local stores by the Board of Commerce are now ready. The cards are the result of an action some time ago requiring that solicitors and agents secure a card of authorization before using the Better Business Bureau as reference.

The notice which is to be displayed in stores, warns solicitors that no donation or endorsement will be given until an endorsement is made from the Better Business Bureau is presented or until inquiry is made.

REJECTS $5,000 LEGACY, OFFNER DIES A PAUPER

James Offner, 87, civil war veteran, died in obscurity at the Auglaize infirmary, while $5,000 left him by the will of Mrs. Sue Offner, his wife, late of Beavertown, remained unclaimed. He lived and died under the name of James Grimes.

He had been missing from home seven years. Among his possessions was found a clipping telling of the $5,000 bequest. His identity was established by relatives when his name was found tattooed on his arm.

TREASURE HUNTERS SEEK $45,000,000 FROM SEA

LONDON—The lure of "Sunken Treasure" is again tempting London speculators, and a company has been formed to test whether there is a matter of $45,000,000 still at the bottom of Navarino Bay, off the west coast of Greece.

When in 1827 the combined British, French and Russian fleets, under Admiral Codrington, destroyed fleets at Navarino, it was generally understood that the Moslem ships carried vast amounts in bullion and treasure.

According to records, at least 62 Tarco-Egyptian ships were sunk. One leading Levantine merchant claimed that one of his ships sunk carried gold and jewels to the value of 130,000,000 francs — pre-war value $24,000,000.

According to another source the Turkish flagship carried $1,000,000 in cash and a still larger sum in jewels and precious objects, while five other ships were alleged by the Turks to have contained over $20,000,000 worth of specie and plate. In 1913 a London company was formed to exploit the "treasure," but the war intervened and the concession expired in 1920. The Greek Government has just granted another concession.

Body of Charles Porter, 60, of Bellefontaine, motorman on the Lima-Springfield division of the I. C. & E. Railway, who was killed instantly, Tuesday afternoon when 33,000 volts of electricity passed thru his body when he attempted to use a telephone in his car, near Yoder, was taken to his home in Bellefontaine Tuesday at 6:50 p. m.

He is survived by his widow, two brothers and a sister. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. An investigation was started by officials of the company Wednesday, to inquire into the cause of Porter's death. According to passengers, Porter had stopped his car at Yoder, a sub-station, to receive orders as to points to meet approaching cars. When he threw his phone switch into the socket on the pole, passengers in the car saw him crumple to the floor.

WIRE CROSSED Officials of the company stated Wednesday that high tension wires fell across the telephone wires, causing his death. The body was brought to the Bowersock undertaking parlors and Coroner Frank Smith was called. He pronounced death due to accidental electrocution.

Homer Ewers, 822 E. High-st, conductor on the same division as Porter, was severely burned about the hands, while using a telephone along the tracks near Bellefontaine, Tuesday. Officials of the company are also investigating the cause of this accident.

$540,000 School Issue Awarded to Otis & Company

Approval of specifications for additions to two Lima school buildings was given by the board of education at its meeting Tuesday night.

At the same time, Otis & Co. of Cleveland was awarded two issues of bonds, totaling $540,000.

Cleveland bankers won the award with a premium of $19,224. At the November election voters approved a $300,000 bond issue and an extra $240,000 was recommended by the board for emergency.

Bids for the new construction work at South and Franklin-bldgs will be opened on April 27. They will be offered both separately and combined. It is specified that the class rooms at South and the east wing of the Franklin-bldg must be completed by September 1.

At Franklin-bldg the east and west wings will be extended to McDonel and Pierce-sts, respectively. The two top floors of the wings will be used for study halls and

IOWA MAN SPEAKER IN CHIRO PROTEST MEET.

An explanation of the merits of chiropractic was made in detail by James G. Geggerson, Davenport, Iowa, speaking before an audience at Memorial hall Tuesday night.

The meeting was the second called by local practitioners to protest against prosecution being carried on by the state medical board.

Principals of the profession have been in practice for about 17 years, the speaker declared and the number of practitioners is now the second largest of any curative profession in the country, he asserted.

LICENSING DOGS

A NEW wrinkle is to be adopted by Sheriff Harvey Crosson, designed to bring to time owners of Allen-co canines who have not purchased tags for the year of 1923.

Our sheriff will send out specially appointed deputies, to visit the various centers of population in different parts of the county, to make their headquarters at the postoffice, there to receive belated license fees for Tag and Towser and Betsy and Beauty. If that doesn't produce the desired results, it is then intended to have the deputies scour the county with cages on wheels and round up the tagless canines.

After being held in pound for a reasonable length of time, unclaimed by their owners, the dogs are to be dispatched—killed! It isn't a pleasant outlook for the dogs, to say the least. It's the old story of the innocent paying the penalty for the neglect of the guilty. How is the dog to know that a price has been placed on his head and that his life is to be the forfeit if it is not satisfied?

By a peculiar twist of irony, the county humane officer is designated as the keeper of the pound. It is his duty to put to death those canines found roaming at large, homeless and friendless, apparently ownerless and unclaimed. Of all the animal friends which instinctively attach themselves to mankind as a protector, the dog is perhaps the most ardent. Consequently, those who deny ownership of a dog at tax time, to escape a fee of one or two dollars, are not worthy of the love and devotion bestowed by the animal repudiated.

If dogs were endowed with understanding and the ability to speak for themselves, there would be no license law. Of nearly $5,000 due from dog tax, probably $2,000 remains unpaid. It would be interesting to know too the actual cost of collecting this tribute on canines, for which one of man's best friends must forfeit his life in event it is not paid. It is true, many dogs kill sheep. But why make the innocent suffer with the guilty? It is not so in laws that are made to apply to man.

NEWSPAPER SERVICE

ONE can scarcely conceive of a time when there were no telegraph, no telephone, automobiles, airplanes, radio and a hundred and one other necessities of these times, which modern civilization could not dispense with.

But queerest of all is to think of the time when there were no newspapers. In those days the news was circulated by word of mouth. The first step in the direction of the development of newspapers was in the form of a news circular.

As early as 1691 B. C. the first news letter appeared in Rome, under the name of Acta Diurna (Daily Happenings). The first news letter in America was issued by John Campbell in 1704 at Boston. Several numbers are still intact, in the possession of the Boston Historical society.

In these days, with presses that "kick out" newspapers at the rate of 30,000 or more an hour, it seems a far cry from the time when the first newspaper printed from type was the Gazette, in Nuremberg, Germany in 1476. It is odd too when one recalls that millions of dollars are spent annually in newspaper advertising in the 20th century, starting from a small ad offering a reward for the recovery of two stolen horses, appearing in the London Impartial Intelligencer in March, 1648, less than 300 years ago.

For a long time weekly newspapers were considered sufficient for all needs and when a daily was suggested, the father of the project was looked upon as being mentally cracked. But with the coming of more rapid transportation, telephones, telegraph and other conveniences and necessities, the weekly publication has become almost a lost art.

A long list of weekly newspapers, formerly published in Lima and Allen-co, are now a memory only. The world is progressing too rapidly for a weekly to fill the needs of the people.

QUEER THINGS

SPRING fishermen, here's a tip: Fish have a well-developed sense of smell, says a writer in Aquatic Life. Maybe they're smelling when they nose the bait.

Settlers in central Ontario, Canada, say they have to stand behind a stump to bait their hooks when they sprinkle a few drops of oil of rhodium on a can of worms. Ojibway Indians, by the way, claim the best trout bait is a live field mouse, hooked under the spines and allowed to swim freely.

SWEATING

A well person clothed sweats two or three quarts a day. The temperature of the air immediately surrounding the body of a clothed person is approximately 88.6 degrees Fahrenheit under ordinary conditions and there is a constant insensible or invisibly fine perspiration going on at that temperature. When the surrounding temperature reaches a point slightly over 91 degrees, a marked increase of sweating begins, in proportion with the increasing temperature, and the sweat becomes visible.

Right here is where many a squeamish person begins to quarrel with his or her health. Sweat is so vulgar; according to the most interesting pages of our popular magazine no lady or gentleman should ever be caught sweating.

Not that it matters so much whether one sweats a quart or a gallon a day. Sweat is practically nothing but water and a pinch of salt anyhow. So far as elimination of any waste matter or poisonous products in the sweat is concerned it's immaterial how much one sweats. The important purpose of sweating is the regulation of body temperature; the fact that one sweats freely rather indicates an active metabolism which means good health. Altho the dripping sweats do occur in various disease conditions as a general rule invalids and those whose way of living favors invalidism, do not sweat very much.

A mere trace of carbon dioxide (carbonic acid gas) is excreted in the sweat when sweating is profuse, but this amounts to an insignificant amount, less than one-half of 1 percent of the amount ordinarily given off by the lungs.

The sweat itself is slightly alkaline but it takes a slightly acid reaction from admixture with the sebum. This acid reaction is due to fatty acids derived from the oily or fatty matter of the sebum. The characteristic sour or sometimes disagreeable odor of sweat is also due to traces of lactic, butyric and other fatty acids. The sweat contains no uric acid or urates but sometimes contains minute traces of urea, which is a normal waste product of metabolism.

For the same reason that the suppression or retention of sweat produces no poisonous effect there is no advantage derived from artificial sweating in the hope of eliminating poisonous or waste matter from the system, for the sweat carries no poison or waste from the body, practically speaking. This does not mean that various sweat baths are not of value in the treatment of disease conditions, for they often do great good, say in heart disease with dropsy.

The good sweating does is rather vicarious. Enough exercise to produce sweating is a sure stimulus to metabolism, causing an increased absorption of oxygen in the body; the oxygen helps to burn poisons and waste matters. The sweat is a gauge of the metabolic activity. If you are not squeamish about sweating you enjoy in reality the effects which alleged tonics and blood purifiers promise but do not produce.

Sweat and keep well.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Hard Boiled and Soft Boiled
To settle a dispute kindly state which is more easily digested, a hard boiled or a soft boiled egg.—C. S.
Answer.—Hard boiled if not too hard boiled is rather more quickly digestible than soft boiled if not too soft boiled. The albumin (white) of raw eggs is not so completely digested as the albumin of an egg cooked as is eaten. Egg boiled enough to render the albumin somewhat friable is broken by the mastication, (or by grating or other preparation) so that the gastric juice more quickly acts upon every particle of it. If too soft boiled or too little boiled, the albumin is still practically raw and longer resists the digestive action of the gastric juice. When egg white is too hard boiled it becomes altered in character, rather leathery and less soluble even when finely grated or well masticated.

LULLABY

Now the day is over, night is coming down,
And the stars are shining on her silken gown,
Dancing stars and twinkling on a silver sea,
And the Slumber-fairies wait and watch for thee.
By-low, my pretty babe,
Slip away to rest,
Shut your eyes and cuddle down
On your mother's breast.
Lullaby, rock-a-bye,
Gently to and fro,
Slumber-land is waiting
Now for you to go.

Smooth and safe the journey to the Land of Bed;
Little waves and gentle splash the way along,
And the breeze above them croons a slumber song:
By-low, my pretty babe,
All is calm and fair,
God shall smile above you
As you slumber there.
Lullaby, rock-a-bye,
Gently ride away,
Till the sunbeams call you
At the break of day.

"Margie" Opens At New Orpheum

ONE of the long anticipated theatrical events of the season will materialize tomorrow at the New Orpheum when the McGregor Company's celebrated musical comedy "Margie" will have its presentation.

"Margie" is described as a tornado of jazz—a whirlwind of mirth and a cyclone of song. All the big features which made the big show so popular during its metropolitan engagement have been retained—the same gorgeous girls, a small army of them, the same cast of singers, dancers and funmakers and the same scenic investiture.

A number of solo musicians is carried by the "Margie" management to augment the local orchestra thereby insuring a perfect rendition of the international hits. It is promised that Leo Edwards, composer of the "Margie" score may direct tonight. Mr. Edwards is visiting the organization at the present time adding a new musical number which by the way, will be used for the first time tonight.

There is not a serious moment in "Margie." A giggle, or a laugh every minute is the promise. Indications point to the same crowded house here as has greeted the big show every night since leaving New York.

Diversified Keith Bill Offered Thursday

WIDELY diversified is the Keith bill offered for the last half of the week at the Faurot Opera House. Music comedy, dancing, and novelties make up the bill which will be offered for the first time at Thursday's matinee.

As curtain raiser Klass, Manning and Klass, tricksters and dancers astonish with wonderful feats on the silver wire. Dancing the latest steps on the wire is easy for these artists.

O'Connor Sisters will delight with popular and croony songs. They possess voices, it is said, that blend prettily and they create an excellent impression by their personal daintiness and attractiveness.

As the headline attraction, M. L. Greenwald presents Frankie Kelcey in the "Brazilian Heiress," a musical comedy revue with a cast of nine competent artists. Frankie Kelcey is the clever and splendidly talented eccentric comedian who disperses mirth throughout the entire twenty minutes of the act.

Music lovers will be delighted with Joseph Diskay's offering, a programme of popular numbers rendered in the pleasing style of this great artist, and appealing to both classical and popular music enthusiasts.

Working on the theory that "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men," Herbert Lloyd and company will present his "Much Ado About Not Much" in which he burlesques and jokes good naturedly about Lima. To describe the plot of this unique travesty would be to destroy the pleasures of its surprises.

HONORING their aunt, Mrs. G. L. Farmer, of Berkeley, California, the Misses Gale and Ruth Parmenter, W. Spring-st., entertained at an informal luncheon, Wednesday, at the Barr Hotel. A color scheme of yellow and pink was used by the hostesses; a large basket of yellow jonquills and pink sweet-peas was very attractive in the center of the table, while the place cards carried out the Easter note. Following the luncheon, an informal afternoon was enjoyed.

Guests included intimate friends of Mrs. Parmenter who were: Mrs. Newton Cunningham, Mrs. J. Boyd Douglas, Mrs. A. T. MacDonell, Mrs. E. W. Parmenter, Mrs. J. Morris, Mrs. George Parmenter, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Warner of Oakland, California, Mrs. Clarence Lathrop of Hume, Mrs. Emma Garretson, Mrs. R. B. Garretson and Mrs. W. H. Jones.

Mrs. Parmenter leaves Tuesday for her home, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Warner, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. George Vicary for the past few weeks, of Oakland, California.

Honoring Miss Caroline Tucker of Long Beach, California, the charming house guest of Miss Elizabeth Clark daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, Miss Virginia Paul, Woodlawn-av., entertained very informally at her home, Wednesday afternoon. Following the bridge games, the hostess served a two course tea assisted by her mother, Mrs. D. R. Paul.

Guests of Miss Paul were: Miss Betty Laughlin, Jane Bonny, Elizabeth Moulton, Helen McGinnis, Dorothy Kahle, Mary Roberts, Miss Clark and the honor-guest.

Miss Rose Shunahan a student at Ursuline Academy, Toledo, arrived Wednesday to visit during the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Shunahan, W. Grand-av.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Reims and son, Mack, of Indianapolis are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Woerner, N. Charles-st.

Mrs. Frank Seale and Mrs. J. W. Blackburn are entertaining at an evening of bridge Wednesday at Mrs. Seale's home, N. Charles-st. Honoring Miss Helen King, bridge-elect of John H. Reynolds of Bridgeport, Conn.

As a compliment to Mrs. J. B. Taylor, president of the Lima Federation of Women's clubs and as a token of appreciation of the work and co-operation on the part of the chairman of the committees during the past two years, Mrs. Becher Moke entertained very informally at the Hotel Argonne, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Moke reached on the mezzanine floor at five o'clock and later presided at the tea table arranged for seventeen guests.

Mrs. Moke's guests were: Misses M. M. Keltner, Eugene Lippincott, J. B. Dwyer, Miss Mathews, W. B. Kirk, Theodore Lymanbach, William Wilson, Vincent Vinton, Robert, Charles Buck, W. J. Pierce, Henry Buck, Ross Mullen, Frank Boone, W. E. Clayton, Otto Lippincott, D. R. Weadock and Miss Drusilla Reilly.

Miss Janet Conaway, Garfield-av. entertained the members of the Phi Beta Sigma sorority, at her home, Tuesday afternoon. Officers were elected at this time, who were: Miss Mary Louisa Edwards, president; Miss Katherine Moulton, first vice-president; and Miss Martha Laughlin, secretary and treasurer. Misses William Kaufman and Helen Baxter were pledged.

The sorority will meet April the eighth with Miss Myra Friedley, Lincoln-av.

Mrs. Alice Reed, W. Wayne-st. welcomed members of the W. B. A. Girls of Lima to view No. 43 at her home, Monday evening. Music and dancing was enjoyed during the evening and a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Reed were: Misses Bernice Weaver, Mabel Schold, Lois Carey, Mildred Pickering, Irene Wilson, Gertrude Miller, Jennette Lorch, Mildred Patton, Mary L. Smith, Mary Saunders, Mrs. L. G. Lerch, Mrs. Guy Siebold, Mrs. Vera Weaver and Mrs. Mary Lauther.

Dale Johnson, State-st., president of the Owl fraternity and Guy Cheney, Holmes-av., were the week-end guests of Toledo friends. During their stay in Toledo, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cheney were honor-guests at a dance given at Viking Temple Saturday night, by the members of the Toledo Chapter of Owls and on Sunday night, W. Scott and R. Bruce Buckley, former Lima residents, entertained with a theatre party, in honor of the Lima visitors.

Substitutes for the afternoon were: Mrs. Charles Leach, Mrs. Earl Swan, Mrs. Lath Simpson, Mrs. Lloyd Applas and Mrs. Arthur Myers.

REMOVING INK STAINS

To remove ink from silk, wool or cotton goods, saturate the spot with spirit of turpentine. Let it remain for some time, then rub with the hands until the stain is removed.

USE WHITE OF EGG

Dip sheets of mush into white of egg before frying and they will be crisp and brown—just as you like them.

IN STEWING FRUIT

Remember you don't need to use so much sugar if you add a pinch of carbonate of soda when stewing fruit.

SUDS KILLS INSECTS

Wash your plants in soapsuds occasionally to kill any insects and keep others away.

IN CUTTING BREAD

Before cutting freshly baked bread dip the knife in boiling water. You will not tear the loaf or have uneven, jagged crusts.

CLEANING THE MOP

Clean your oil mop with hot water, ammonia and a little washing powder. You'll find this much less difficult than the ordinary soap and water method.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:

What a fine present the following, I subscribed for a set of medical books and upon receiving them was not at all satisfied. I tried several of the remedies given for different ailments and saw no improvement at all in the patients and it became necessary for me to send for the books. I have missed any payments on the books so far and have written to the firm about sending them back. They say they will not take them, although they are in good shape, not soiled at all. Now, if I sent them back anyway, can they do anything about it? They are very expensive books and I am not able to pay so much if they do not answer my purpose.

NOT knowing from what firm you ordered your books, it is difficult for me to advise you. However, most companies allow a ten day trial, did you keep them longer than ten days or did they not offer a free trial? No, if they refuse to take them back, I would not return them. Perhaps you might sell them, why not advertise them in The Lima News? Some one would perhaps like to have them in their library.

Dear Miss Smart:

Who can be more interested in the friend-ly club? I am a girl who will soon be 16. Am I too young to join? How much does it cost to join? Does it have a special price for infants or does it go with it? I am 11 and I like to go with it. I am five feet, four inches tall and rather slender. How long should I wear my dresses? Can you suggest a good candy recipe? How is my writing?

I have turned all business matters of the club over to the president. Altho, most of the members are older than you, perhaps you would be eligible for membership. I believe the youngest members of the club at present are about 28 years old. However, if you are interested and would care to join, send me your name and I will hand it to the president. She can notify you of the next meeting and you may see for yourself, that is, see whether you would enjoy yourself or not. I do not think you are too young to go to small private parties once in a while with boys, but you certainly are too young to go to public dances this summer or a good many summers to come. Do not wear your dresses extremely long—that is, according to style. Wear them a becoming length. A rather unusual recipe for candy is the following for brown sugar taffy. Boil one cup of brown sugar, two tablespoons of molasses, four tablespoons of water and a piece of butter the size of an egg until a teaspoonful of it will harden when dropped into cold water. Pour into a buttered pan and cut into small squares when cool.

Dear Susie:

Will you kindly tell me what to get to make my hair long and thick and yet not spoil the natural curls I have? I am a little girl eight years old. Which would look better a ribbon or a barrette? I have blue eyes and golden curly hair.

BLUE EYES.

It's preposterous to think of a child your age buying anything to put on your hair. Give your hair time; it will grow long and thick. That is, if you do not "treat" it. Wash your hair often and do not think of using anything on it but good soap. Either a barrette or a ribbon are suitable.

Safe Milk and Malt. In powder, makes The Food-Drink for All Ages. Avoid Imitations—Substitutes.

MEDIUM BROWN HAIR Looks best of all after a Golden Gilt Shampoo.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With

If you want to keep your child's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisified in a cup or glass with a little warm water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff, and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisified coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Multisified—Adv.

Vendetta begins between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal and accomplice in the Leeds bank robbery, and his beautiful housemaid, JANET SOALE.

JANET saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sayers' wife and accomplice in the Leeds bank robbery. Michael narrowly escapes capture and is forced to flee the country.

Janet receives a legacy of two hundred and fifty pounds and takes passage to Marseilles. A passenger named Louisia Martini comes to Janet's state-room and reveals herself as one of Michael's confederates. Louisia travels to Marseilles with Janet and takes her to Michael's hiding place. Sayers and Louisia accuse Janet of treachery but Janet denies their accusations.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

GREYEN TAKES UP THE STORY

During the third week of March, after a somewhat restless few months of travel in Egypt and Algeria, I reached Monte Carlo to find a telegram from my friend Rimmington, begging me to come at once to Marseilles. I realized that there could be but one reason for such a request, and in less than twelve hours I found myself with Rimmington and Monsieur Demayel, the chief of the Marseilles police, ransacking the contents of a small villa in the suburbs of Marseilles, which had lately been the scene of one of those crimes for which the place was fast gaining an unenviable notoriety.

I had had no conversation with Rimmington, and I had no idea why my help had been sought in this case, which appeared to have no special characteristics. The late inhabitant of the villa a man of over 70 years of age, had been found 24 hours ago suffering from severe wounds about the head and in a state of collapse. He was lying in a neighboring hospital and was unlikely to recover. This much, however, was clear; he had been robbed of a large sum of money, the possession of which he had foolishly bragged about in a neighboring cafe. We went thru the usual routine of examining the means by which entrance had been forced into the house, and hearing the evidence of the local gendarmes. Afterward we drove to the police headquarters; and it was in Monsieur Demayel's private room there that Rimmington at last explained what had been puzzling me so much.

"You know, of course, Greys," he began, "what my having sent for you means?"

"Michael, I hope?"

"We traced him to Paris," he said, "and afterward here. Almost immediately, as Monsieur Demayel will tell you, there was not only an increase in the number of crimes in the district, but there were evidences of a master-mind behind them all. Monsieur Demayel told me, an hour or so ago, that thefts to the value of 11,000,000 francs had been committed within the last two months."

"And the connecting link?" I questioned.

"Eight days ago," Rimmington said, watching me closely, "Janet Soale sailed from Tilbury for Marseilles. The woman who was Michael's companion in New York, who goes by the name of Louisia Martini, after traveling from America to Havre, joined the same steamer. At Gisors he having conveniently chosen a circuitous route to avoid suspicion. These two women ate lunch on their way to Marseilles; they are due to arrive, in fact, tonight—and will be closely watched. Furthermore, I think that Monsieur Demayel can show you something of interest."

Monsieur Demayel placed a leather-bound volume before me and pointed to an entry.

I read the few lines quickly:

Henri Guy, French-Colonial, bachelor, 5 ft. 6 inches, morose, gray hair and beard, physical appearance described elsewhere, address, Villa Violette, Bandol. Has large correspondence, subscribes to English newspapers, among them "Colt Illustrated." Has small cat and has been seen on Hyeres golf-links.

"Ah! finally!" I asked.

"The person in question, M. Demayel continued, "is reported to have changed at the Casino at Bandol last evening one of the mills notes stolen from the house we visited this afternoon."

"How far is it to Bandol?" I inquired.

"Forty-seven kilometers," the chief of police replied, and we should have been there by now, but my friend Mr. Rimmington here insisted upon waiting for you."

I asked only one question on the way.

"You spoke of Janet Soale as coming out on the boat," I said to Rimmington.

"GOOD EVENING, GENTLE MEN," HE SAID. "YOU ARE PAYING ME A VISIT?"

Rimmington. "That was her name before she married Michael."

Rimmington nodded.

"For some reason or other she has renewed it. It is possible that she has discovered something about Michael which I have suspected for some time."

I controlled my voice as well as I could. I did not wish even Rimmington to know how much this meant to me.

"What do you mean?" I asked.

"I believe," he replied, "that Michael was married many years ago to this woman, Louisia Martini. Janet Soale may have got to know of this. She may be coming out to try and discover the truth. It is certain that for many months she has not been in communication with Michael."

The chief of the police gazed thoughtfully out of the window.

We reached Bandol just before dusk and found the Villa Violette on the outskirts of the town. We left the car in the road and took the path which led to the front door. Our summons was at once answered by a stout, good-humored French woman, who shook her head regretfully when we inquired for Monsieur Guy.

"Monsieur is out in his automobile," she told us. "He may return at any moment, or perhaps not at all tonight. The gentlemen will leave a message?"

"We will come in and wait for a little time," Demayel suggested.

The woman did not remove her portly form from the threshold.

"That, alas, monsieur, is impossible!" she declared. "My master receives few visitors and he would not suffer anyone in the house."

Monsieur Demayel touched her on the shoulder. He was looking curiously into her face.

"Madame," he said, "I am Chef de la Surete of Marseilles, and I go where I choose. Furthermore, it seems that your face is familiar to me."

She shrunk away.

"Chef de la Surete!" she muttered. "But who has done wrong here?"

We searched the sitting-room and dining-room of Monsieur Henri Guy, and we found nothing that might not have belonged to a French Colonial who had made a small fortune in sugar. But in his bedroom, covered over with a sheet and hidden behind a cupboard, I found a prize indeed. I found the golf-clubs which Stanfield had used when he had played against me at Woking. I drew from the bag the putter which had sealed my defeat, and even in that moment of triumph, I felt a little thrill of pleasure when I realized the perfect balance.

"Our search is over," I pronounced.

"Our search is not over," Rimmington reminded me, "until we have found the man."

We were there altogether for half an hour, during which time we searched the place closely. The small garage was empty, and Rimmington pointed out the six or eight empty tins which had evidently just been used.

We announced our intended departure. The housekeeper, who now seemed certain of her master's immediate return, did her best to persuade us to linger. Monsieur Demayel cut her short.

"Madame," he said, "you will be so good as to consider yourself under surveillance. I shall leave a gendarme in the house with you."

The woman burst into a torrent of furious complaints and abuse, lapsing into a French argot which was absolutely incomprehensible to me. Monsieur Demayel listened to her thoughtfully. Then he turned to the gendarme who had come with us from Marseilles.

"Do not let this woman out of your sight," he ordered. "She is of the Maritime Quarter, where I suspect her master is in hiding by now."

The gendarme saluted and laid his hand upon the housekeeper's shoulder. Suddenly she burst into a fit of laughter and pointed up the avenue.

"It is Monsieur who returns," she announced. "Now what will you say to him—you who have ransacked his rooms and upset his house? Chief of the Police, indeed! La la!"

We stood by the front door, and I for my part was amazed. An elderly gentleman of highly respectable appearance drove up in a small car and lifted his soft felt hat to us courteously.

"Good evening, gentlemen," he said. "You are paying me a visit?"

"You are Monsieur Guy?" Demayel inquired.

"That is certainly my name," was the prompt reply.

"And this is your house?"

"I rent it subject to your pleasure, gentlemen."

He descended from the car and looked at every one of us inquiringly. I knew better than any other what a past master in the art of disguises Michael was; but I knew that this was not he.

"My name is Demayel," the Chief announced. "I am the Chef de la Surete in Marseilles. You will be so good as to answer me a few questions."

"Chef de la Surete!" the newcomer repeated, and if his amazement were feigned, it was very well feigned indeed.

"But certainly! You have lived here for how long?"

"For ten months, monsieur."

"You changed a mille note at the Casino yesterday?"

"I certainly did."

"From where did you obtain it?"

"From my desk, monsieur. It has lain there for weeks."

"This is your only car?" I put in.

"But naturally," was the prompt response. "There is no room in my garage for more than one."

I excused myself for a moment and returned with the bag of golf-clubs.

"These are perhaps yours?" I asked.

LETTER FROM SYDNEY CARLETON TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

Nothing doing old man; at least, nothing doing up to date as far as the letters are concerned.

I could see that it would do no good even to mention them when I took Mademoiselle out to dinner the other night. She seemed to have forgotten there was such a thing as a love letter in all the world.

We talked you over pretty thoroughly.

The lady acknowledged she wished you well; had nothing against you; that for at least a year you had given her a very beautiful time and she hoped that your wife was worthy of you.

Don't sneer; I think she meant it. She is a very clever girl, Jack. I almost succumbed to her charms myself.

Her conversation, which is a mixture of English when she tries to be calm and French when her emotions become impulsive, is most fascinating.

Honestly, I do not think Paula Perier will give up those letters. However, I should not worry much about them for if she remains in this frame of mind she will never make you any trouble.

She may use them as a lever to pry you away from your wife occasionally, but the time may come when you will want a good excuse.

Of course I understand your predicament, old chap. It isn't particularly pleasant, and I am sure you are wishing a thousand times that there were no letters of yours floating around to be brought up against you.

I will stay here for a couple of days longer. Mademoiselle and I are going on a long motor ride this afternoon and dine at some quiet inn. Perhaps the fates will be propitious. If so, I will bring your love missives when I come in a few days.

SYD.

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARLETON

So that little vixen has put it over on you! I might have known that she could wrap an impressionable old bachelor like you about her little finger.

If you are not successful in getting those letters tonight, wire me and I shall receive a very urgent call from my firm to return to Albany, and go and see the lady myself.

BEGAN IMPROVING RIGHT AWAY

States Plant Juice Relieved Awful Burning and Bloating in Stomach

A WELL KNOWN LIMA MAN

"I began to feel the effects of your Plant Juice almost from the first dose I took and I am now improved so much that I gladly recommend your medicine to the public," said Mr. C. N. Roeder, of 819 East Kibby street, Lima, while talking recently.

MR. C. N. ROEDER

with The Plant Juice man at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima.

"For months I had suffered from terrible aches in my stomach and at times stomach would burn and feel like it was on fire," Mr. Roeder continued. "I bloated badly and it sometimes seemed that my heart was affected from the gas. I had no appetite and what little food I ate would put me in misery. I suffered often from headaches and was very restless at night."

"I read about your Plant Juice and the fine results people were getting from its use and so I started taking it and it is relieving my troubles right along. I have only been taking your Plant Juice a short time but already I have improved so much that I can eat almost anything I want; sleep good and the pains in my head are gone. Those spells of burning and bloating in my stomach are nearly gone now and, in short, your Plant Juice has done more for me in just the short time I have been taking it than anything else I ever used. I think its action on the stomach and liver is remarkable and I gladly recommend it to the public."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—adv.

GOOD LOOKS GOOD HEALTH

WENDELL'S SALTS. AMBITION BRAND—Starts the answer. Some of you ladies who read this may have complexion disfigured by liver spots and discolorations. If this is the case, don't worry about it and don't use face lotions. Just go at once to Enterprise Drug Store and get a large bottle of WENDELL'S SALTS. AMBITION BRAND. For only sixty cents. It will clear your complexion by helping to drive from your system the poisonous uric acid that is affecting your liver, stomach and kidneys. A poor, rough mottled skin isn't due to the sun or weather, but to an upset condition which uric acid usually causes. Go to the root of the trouble. Destroy that and your good looks and health will return.

WENDELL'S SALTS. AMBITION BRAND. is a wonderful preparation for indigestion, biliousness, constipation, headache, rheumatism, malaria, nervousness, kidney troubles—when caused by uric acid poison.

Remember, WENDELL'S SALTS. AMBITION BRAND, is guaranteed by Enterprise Drug Store and dealers everywhere.

It is pleasant to take, acts quickly and you can get your money back on the first bottle purchased if dissatisfied.—Adv.

LOCAL TENNIS ORGANIZATION IS PLANNED

Movement Prepare For Junior Basketball Tournament In Lima

Under Way

(BY RICHARD A. THORNBURGH)
Organization of a tennis association in Lima is under way. Interest in the court game has increased a great deal during the last few years, men here believe, and for this reason a regular organization is needed to back the building of courts and to generally boost for better games.

Negotiations are now being carried on, according to Theodore G. Scheidt, one of the leading tennis enthusiasts in the city, to buy land on which probably four courts will be built. Three or four sites are under consideration and the selection will be made in the near future.

It is expected that forty to fifty members will be secured in the local tennis club before the end of May, according to Mr. Scheidt. A time and place for an organization meeting has not been selected yet but this will be done as soon as plans are far enough completed to warrant it. The organization will be known as the Lima Tennis Club.

Many local racket wielders are now members of the Western Tennis League which is affiliated with the United States Lawn Tennis Association, the official organization in this country. The local club will, when formed, doubt be affiliated with this body.

I. W. Green, another tennis hacker, is on record as being in favor of the formation of a local club.

The regular city tournament, under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. will probably be staged earlier than usual this year. Last year it was not held until August and officials found that was too late as many people were away on vacations. This year it will probably be held in July, I. G. Maxwell, physical director at the "Y," announced.

In connection with this city tournament, Mr. Maxwell said Y. M. C. A. officials are planning to hold a state tournament, probably in Dayton, in which winners of various local tournaments in Ohio will take part. This would include both singles and doubles events.

Mr. Maxwell said that later in the year when he gets the indoor courts of the "Y" out of his way, he will be glad to give any assistance possible in the formation of a tennis club here.

To Get Fast Ones

Muddy Ruel

TAMPA, Fla. — It has been definitely decided who will catch Walter Johnson the coming season. When Walter is selected to pitch the first game the announcer will yell:

"For Washington, Johnson will pitch and Ruel will catch."

Manager Bush has selected Muddy Ruel as Johnson's partner. Thus Ruel will become the fourth catcher to be paired off with the great Johnson.

The original battery was Johnson and Street, then came Johnson and Albrecht, followed by Johnson and Pichler. The very latest is Johnson and Ruel. Ruel will also be paired with Allan Russell, the spitballer.

SOPHS DEFEAT ALL-STARS

Central Sophomores defeated Central All-Stars in a hotly contested game at the Y. M. C. A. late Tuesday. It was necessary to play five minutes overtime to sew up the game and the Sophomores came out on top of an 18 to 13 score.

The game was close from start to finish. Barnolich was the star of the Sophomore team with three field goals and two fouls while Dole with two field goals and two fouls took high scoring honors for the All-Stars.

FURPO MAY TAKE PLACE OF WILLARD ON CHARITY CARD
NEW YORK — Luis Angel Furpo, the South American giant, may take Jess Willard's place and fight Floyd Johnson in the big charity show here on May 12, according to word going around today.

Mr. Willard has been reported as training strictly and doing well at Excelsior Springs. It was indicated that the South American has been asked to be ready to take the place of either fighter in the event that some hitch arises.

After the promoters of the show had looked all over the country for an ideal set up and had decided upon Farmer Lodge, the huge Minnesota "law breakers" boxing commission came along and ruined the plans by refusing to permit Luis to battle with the Farmer.

FIVE EVENTS IN ROLLER SKATING CONTEST APRIL 14
Five events for each of the two classes will form the program for the roller skating contest being put on by the Y. M. C. A. April 14, R. T. Veal, boys' secretary, said today.

There will be the one skate race, potato race, half, one and two block races. One class will include boys 10 and 11 years old while the other will be for boys 12, 13 and 14. Mr. Veal expects about 50 entries before the last closes April 12. There are 25 names entered now.

VOLLEY BALL SCHEDULE IS BEING MADE FOR LIMA LOOP
A schedule for the civic volley ball league is being prepared by athletic officials of the Y. M. C. A.

As yet there are but four teams entered representing the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and Y. M. C. A. The Wise Men's club has been making plans to enter but has not reached a final decision.

First games of the schedule will be played next Tuesday evening.

BASEBALL AT ROSE THIS WEEK

The "powers that be" in the shaping of the weather were the guardians of the fate of the St. Rose high diamond aspirants Wednesday.

With warmer weather it was expected that the first practice of the year at the northside school would be held but players "refused to be quoted" until the last minute. They said a sudden change in the weather would necessitate postponement.

Light workouts will be indulged in for the first few days but with warm weather would necessitate postponement.

MAY BE VARSITY SPORT
It is possible and quite probable that baseball will be made a varsity sport also it is not yet certain. Officials will make their decision early next week. Work has begun on the framing of a schedule which will include Ft. Wayne, Toledo and possibly other teams from the larger cities in Ohio. Several small towns in the vicinity have asked the Rosarians for games.

The Northsiders are anxious to make their first year of baseball a real one. Fine material is evident and with proper coaching they should have a fast fielding hard hitting team.

In Powers, Schmeising and Buchanan they have a staff of good receivers while Powers with McNamara will form a strong hitting department. W. McNamara is the leading candidate for first base while Wells will probably take care of second. Daley at short and Mahlmeister at third will complete the infield unless some "dark horse" looms up with unusual ability.

O'Connor, Boyle, Murphy, Hanley, Quinn, Lane and various others will patrol the outer gardens. With this fine outlook the Saints seem confident that they will have a good season unless the old dope bucket springs an unexpected leak.

Norbert Brown, student's athletic manager at Rose for the last two years, has been selected to continue his duties. John Murphy was again named his assistant.

LEADERS BUNCHED AT A. B. C.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (By Associated Press.) — For the first time in the history of American Bowling tournaments, it will take a score of better than 700 to get in the list of the first five in the individual event.

That record was set yesterday when G. Schenk of Syracuse, N. Y., shot games of 275, 219, and 206 for an even 700 and assumed fifth place back of four scores ranging from 724 to 795.

The leading doubles mark of 1295 held by F. Kolache and J. Jacobs of Milwaukee quaked and almost crumbled when O. Klatt and J. Burmeister of Chicago bunched strikes and came within ten pins of the lead, scoring 1285. Burmeister counting 683 and his teammate 592.

Two teams tied for fourth place in the doubles, W. Rossiter and E. Pierce of Chicago, and W. Wiegman and C. Frank of Louisville, when they swept the alleys for a 1276 count.

The five leaders of the team event remained intact throughout yesterday's bowling, the top five of Cleveland with 3588, being the only dangerous contender for a place in the exclusive circle.

FIRST TRACK PRACTICE IS HELD AT CENTRAL HIGH
First practice of the Central track team was held Monday evening in the gymnasium with several jumping and shot candidates in uniform.

Coach Thibault gave his men no rest work, merely pointing out the different styles of high jumping.

Practice was set for Thursday and Friday and outdoor work will start Monday unless bad weather interferes. Long distance men and sprinters will be called next week.

INDOOR BASEBALL WORK IS STARTED AT MINNESOTA
CHICAGO — Indoor baseball practice is under way at the University of Minnesota under the direction of Major L. R. Watrous, newly appointed coach. Battery men were called into action, eleven who professed to be pitchers, and four catchers starting the season's work.

George Myrland, veteran third baseman will captain the 1923 squad. The first of the Big Ten games will be played against Northwestern at Evanston, April 28.

PILO BASEBALL LOOP IS UNDER CONSIDERATION NOW
CHICAGO — Basketball has grown so much in popularity in the Midwest that plans already are under consideration for the formation of a league of professional teams, with Cleveland and Detroit slated for membership.

The game has developed such a following in Cleveland that 24,000 persons paid to witness two professional teams in action in one afternoon and one evening game.

THREE COLLEGE LADS HELP CARDS

UPPER RIGHT, ROSCOE HOLM; AT RIGHT, BRADENTON; BOY WITH BAT IS RICKETY, CALLED BY RICKETY "ANOTHER GEORGE BURNS."

BY BILLY EVANS
BRADENTON, Fla. — Manager Branch Rickety of the St. Louis Cardinals is strong for collegians.

The man who discovered George Sisler, helped develop him as coach at University of Michigan, and then bought him to the St. Louis Browns, likes the high-brow athletes.

It is a rather interesting fact that the three most promising recruits on the Cardinal team are collegians.

Roscoe Holm, former Iowa State star, is one of the best looking recruits I have ever seen in a long time. Howard Friegan, outfielder, of Ohio Wesleyan, the alma mater of Manager Rickety, is another capable performer. The other member of the "Rah" "Rah" trio is Eddie Dyer of Rice Institute, Texas. In college circles Dyer was a whole of a pitcher. When not pitching he played the outfield because of his butting and speed.

200 BOYS GIVEN SECOND SWIM LESSON AT "Y"

All of the 200 boys entered in the Y. M. C. A. swimming classes have been given their second lessons. By Friday night it will be announced which of the boys have learned to swim and will receive certificates.

There are four big points being stressed by Physical Director Maxwell. They are the two D's, breathing and balance and the two C's, confidence and co-ordination. With these, he declared, and practice, anyone should be able to swim.

It is believed that many of the boys learned to swim at their second lesson. Others will learn with the final instructions Friday.

TRAINING CAMP NEWS NOTES

NEW ORLEANS—Bob Meusel's triple drove in the run that beat Babe Ruth's team 2 to 1, in an inter-family struggle of the New York Yankees. The Bam played first and didn't get a hit off Mays or Johnson.

SAN ANTONIO—While a heavy rain had all the other Giants in the hotel, Jack Bentley, the $65,000 Baltimore pitcher, went out to the ball park and spent the morning playing hard ball and running around the field in the moisture. He said he had taken off several pounds in two days. McGraw heard about it and made the other pitchers go out and work.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Reuther, Grimes and Deatree, the best of the Robin pitchers, failed to stop the Cleveland Indians, who won an exhibition, 9 to 6.

TAMPA, Fla. — The injured list of the Senators continues large. Judge is out with a badly sprained ankle; Peckinbaugh, a broken finger; Gagon, a dislocated knee; Charity and Deach sore arms.

SEGUIN, Tex. — When a rain-storm kept the White Sox from working outdoors, 200 bales of cotton were removed from a cotton warehouse so that pitchers could keep their arms limbered up.

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Chicago Cubs met the San Francisco Pacific Coast League team for the second game of a series today.

GRIFFIN, Ga. — The Detroit Tigers trounced the Rochester International League team in their season exhibition game here yesterday, 13 to 6.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Cooper showed mid-season form and the Pirates regulars walloped the Yanigans, 12 to 7.

ORLANDO, Fla. — After today's game the Reds will break camp here and start on their way homeward. Taylor, Schmitt and Dye, recruits were cut adrift by the Reds.

MARSHALL TO PUT NINE IN FIELD AGAIN THIS SEASON
The Marshall sporting goods baseball team, which will be in the field again this season, plays its opening game at Van Wert late in April.

Johns, Dickey, Powell, King and Phillips are expected to be with the club again this season.

IOWA WOMAN BOWLS 199 PIN AVERAGE
DUBUQUE, Ia. — Miss Ida Lacke lacked nothing on the bowling alleys here. She cracked the pins for an average in three games of 199, believed to be a record for women in Iowa. Her high score was 227.

GUSTAVE SANDBERG

ORLANDO, Fla. — The unique record of having been fired by a minor league club and hired by a major league one in the same season belongs to Gustave Sandberg, new catcher for the Reds, who is expected to show well the coming year.

Last year was Sandberg's fifth in the International League. He started out with Toronto last year, but in June a deal was arranged that would have sent him to New Orleans in the Southern League. This was even a step below the International.

George Stallings of the Rochester club refused to waive on him, however, and he was used regularly for that club behind the bat. Pat Moran, Reds' manager, saw Sandberg in action and paid a good price for his release.

GYM SHOW FOR "Y" APRIL 6

The third annual gymnastic exhibition of the local Y. M. C. A. will be held Friday evening, April 6, I. G. Maxwell, physical director, announced Wednesday.

Cadets, juniors, intermediates, young men's classes and business men will take part in the affair. There will probably be over 200 participants. Regular class work along the line of gymnastics will be given starting at 8 o'clock. Business men will play a series of volley ball games as their part of the evening's entertainment.

LIMA MEN 45th IN NATIONAL MEET

Lima Y. M. C. A. bowlers won forty-fifth place in the national tournament, held on Washington's birthday, according to information received Wednesday by I. G. Maxwell. Since there were 71 teams entered, the standing isn't quite as poor as it might seem. Canton, W. C. number one with a total score of 3,132 for three games. Lima men rolled 2,481.

High individual honors for three games went to R. B. Johnson of Pueblo, Colo. H. W. Snyder of Lima ranked fifty-sixth in this event with a score of 522. The high score was 699.

E. E. Francis of Bogalusa, La., topped over 200 pins in high score in one game. Perry Anderson of this city ranked fifty-sixth in this event with 193.

Mrs. Isaac MacKenzie, 314 S. Main-st writes: "Bobby liked to use words of several syllables, but sometimes got them somewhat confused. He was coming to spend his sixth birthday with his grandmother who had promised to have a celebration on that day. He was boasting to his playmates about the big event in his honor and said, 'I'm going to Delphos tomorrow, 'cause grandmother is going to have a operation for my birthday.'"

"One day little Ruth Leveck, aged four years was playing with a playmate and seeing her kick backwards said, 'Well I guess I can kick my hind egg too', tells Mrs. M. Leveck, 134 N. Pine-st.

C. E. Hair, who lives in the country, backed his fine Buick automobile out of the barn and ran into Findlay.

One has heard of those who have driven to town with hens roosting in an automobile. But when this driver reached town a lot of hay was seen on the running board at the off side, and on it was a setting of six eggs.

Clarence Fraumfelter records the loss of a young woman at Allantown.

In the city when one's hat blows off there are willing bystanders to chase it, even at night. But when this helpless young woman's hat blew off in a wind and rainstorm it blew so far in the dark she hasn't found it yet.

Elmer McClain says one of the banqueters put cream and sugar in his bouillon at the Borah banquet at Akron.

He passed the sugar on and five others followed his lead. When the cream and sugar was used the fifth emptied his under the table and called for another cupful.

Julia Callahan, natural humorist, got a box of trick matches to give to a friend and see him jump. He lit one and lit one while he was waiting on a curb for a street car. It scared him off the curb into a mud puddle when it went off with a bang.

John T. Cotner, county clerk, reports that he was awakened by a yell from another home in the neighborhood. He learned later that a neighbor had got up in the night, stepped on his wife's powder puff and thought it was a mouse. That's what made him yell so, reports the interested Mr. Cotner.

Clarence Clark, barber, started to drive to Lima with two jugs of highly recommended spring water he got at Andover, Ohio.

He drove so fast the car caught fire and it took both jugs of the fine spring water to put the fire out.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IN A MOMENT

Try This! Hair Appears Soft, Colorful and Abundant—A Gleamy Mass

35 Cent Bottle of "Danderine" Also Ends Dandruff; Falling Hair!

Immediately—your hair becomes beautiful. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and really appear twice as thick and abundant—a mass of luxuriant, glistening, colorful hair.

Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine eradicates dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is the best, cheapest and most delightful hair corrective and tonic. It is to the hair what fresh showers of rain are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots vitalizes and strengthens them. Its stimulating properties help the hair to grow long, heavy, strong.

You can surely have beautiful hair and lots of it, if you will spend 35 cents for a bottle of Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter. It is not greasy, oily or sticky—adv.

Do you carry a crank?

For many motorists—for those who have learned the economy and comfort of having a worth-while battery in their car—the automobile crank has practically passed out of the language. Perhaps they carry one hidden deep down under the back seat, but they have not seen it in years.

Others know their cranks only too well, for with a battery that sometimes works and sometimes does not, they have frequent opportunities to train their wrist muscles.

The comfort of knowing your electric starter is going to work every time, the security of being sure that your lights will illuminate the road ahead the moment you switch them on—these are the joys of having a battery on which you can always depend.

The proof of experience

If you own an Exide, you know these joys. If not, and you make inquiry, you will find that in earning its reputation as the long-life battery Exide has given satisfaction to millions of automobile owners in all parts of the world.

Sturdily built, Exide has the rugged power to outlast any other battery. That is what makes it economy for you to own one. When your battery needs to be replaced, drive to the nearest Exide Service Station and get the right size Exide for your car.
